HOMECOMING

Smart Finkletter interviews the kiddies!

It began with nominations for Homecoming Queen and attendants. It ended with a dance and the ride home. In between there was the rush and bustle and fun of building class floats. For the freshmen, the first time, for the seniors, the last. There were the daily football practices -- getting ready for the big game.

Then, the night before the game, C. H. S. students gathered at the bottom of Main Street. The roar of the crowd, the blare of the band, accompanied the burning of an effigy of a Creston Panther. As the crowd broke up, the annual snake dance wound its way up Main Street. That night, too, Creston -- foe for the next evening -- had some visitors. They were Raiders, unusually handy with the paintbrush.

Beeeeeeet Creston!!!!

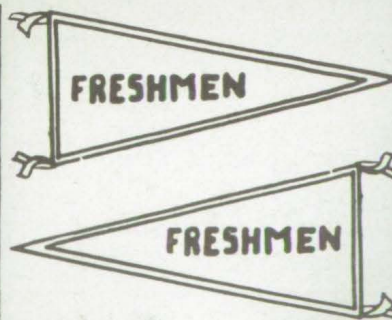

Her Majesty, Queen Carm

A Martian? No, a stork from the Juniors first prize float.

Nan and the bird.

'59 cars were labeled Hi-Y and G R A

..... 1958

Friday, the afternoon before the game, the candidates for Queen, and the freshman, sophomore, and junior attendants led the Homecoming parade. They were followed by the C. H. S. band, the class and organization floats, and businessmen, dressed in their "Krazy Day" outfits.

That night Corning fans gathered on the west side of our field, Creston fans on the east. Before the game the impressive ceremony of crowning the Homecoming Queen of 1958 was held. Out of four senior girls, the student body voted to make Carm Johnson their queen.

As the cameras started flashing, the game began. It wasn't a bad game, but from the Corning point of view it wasn't good. We lost, 20-7. Following the game, Raiders danced to the music of Bobby Dreher, thus striking the final note of Homecoming..... 1958.

Seniors gamble and win -- third prize.

It's fun to make those dice!

They led the parade!
