VOL. XII

Corning, Iowa, Monday, December 5, 1960

Under each of the four to six different classifications including taste in dress, poise, tact, manners, judgment, sense of values, punctuality, ambition, teamwork, and resourcefulness.

Listed below each of the different classifications were five descriptions. The one description which was best suited to the person filling out the chart was the one which was to be marked.

Each of the five descriptions had a score ranging from a -2 to plus 2. After finishing the evaluation a score is computed from these figures, a perfect score being 48.

Later on each girl in stenography class will make an evaluation of each of the other girls.

A trip to Ames to attend a football game was another highlight of this eventful school year.

Shirley Campbell plays the only stringed instrument in our band.

IN MEMORIAM

The passing of Miss Eva Kazebeer last summer marked the termination of many years of devoted teaching in Corning High School. Her life seemed dedicated to the service of humanity. Students and fellow faculty members knew and deeply appreciated the work done by Miss Kazebeer in the field of mathematics.

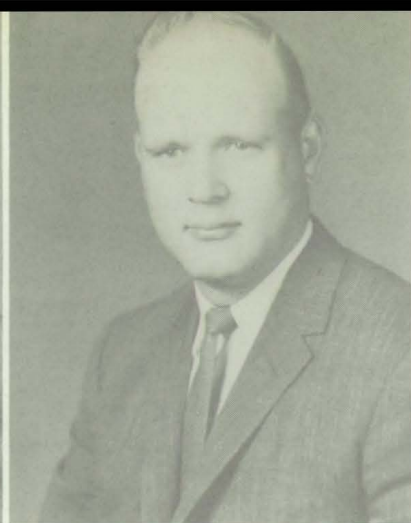

Serving as sponsor of the Y-Teens was an important part of her life at C.H.S.

Miss Kazebeer is sadly missed by those who knew her and will long be remembered.
