A Fond Farewell

Dr. Kenneth Mallas has been superintendent of the Corning Community School District for 20 years, since 1972. This year Dr. Mallas will retire, and we will all miss his help and his guidance. "Corning is blessed with wonderful people. They accept others into their midst very easily. This has always been evident as I worked with students. I have enjoyed the young people very much," Dr. Mallas said of his departure from the Corning school system. Dr. Mallas will be remembered fondly for the many positive changes he has made here.

Under the direction of a new instrumental instructor, Mr. Michael Peters, the 1992-93 Band, Marching Band, and Jazz Band had a great year. They participated in many contests and brought back a II rating from large group contest. The group ended the year with a concert in which they performed a variety of numbers. Many of the members also prepared solos and ensembles for contest, for Fine Arts Night, and for the final show.

Under the direction of Linda Patterson, the 1992-93 Show Choir had a very productive year. They performed at the REC Banquet and at Congregate Meals. They participated in many contests and brought back a few first place trophies. The group ended the year with a concert in which they performed a variety of choreographed numbers. Many of the members also prepared solos and ensembles for contest, for Fine Arts Night, and for the final show.

All State

Four Corning students worked hard to receive the highest choral honor in Iowa. Sophomore Wes McMahon, senior Adrienne Millhollin, senior Emily Ekdahl, and junior Ryan Boswell made the 1992 All State Choir and performed in Ames in the fall.

Top--Margot (Amanda Dixon), Mrs. Frank (Emily Ekdahl), and Mr. Frank (Wes McMahon) struggle with their fears.
 Center--Anne (Adrienne Millhollin) follows Mrs. Van Daan's (Stacie Olson) advice.
 Bottom--Mr. Dussel (Lee Easterlie) and Mr. Van Daan (Adam Anderson) listen to news provided by Mr. Kraler (John Wilson).

Fall Play

In March, 1945, a young girl died in Bergen-Belsen, unaware that she was leaving behind her a work that shed the first tiny human light on an episode in history that was unspeakably inhuman.

--A. Birstein and A. Kazin

Mrs. Frank (Emily Ekdahl) checks to see whether or not Anne (Adrienne Millhollin) has a fever.

At left--a prayer at Hanukkah. Below--Mr. Frank (Wes McMahon) returns to the attic after the war and finds Anne's diary. Bottom--Anne (Adrienne Millhollin) and Peter (Mark Schaffer) escape from their families.

When Adam Pontipee (Ryan Boswell) sets his sights on getting a bride to care for him and his six brothers, he doesn't count on her changing his life, but that's just what Milly (Adrienne Millhollin) does. Before long, Adam's brothers all want wives of their own--any way they can get them. It's a love story with seven doses of fun.
