YOU SAY YOU WANT A REVOLUTION?

During the 1995-96 school year, Corning and Villisca High Schools were able to offer a new course of study to students in both districts.

With cooperation from Southwestern Community College, the schools launched a new program and offered a class called Building Trades. The purpose of the class was to build a house—from start to finish—over the course of one school year. The photos you see on these two pages serve as a kind of record of the building of that house. The construction crew you see is made up entirely of high school students. What some considered a daunting task took shape and became a very satisfying reality.

Dad, Mom, Trisha, Ryan & Regina

Dear Babsi:

We laughed; we cried; we sang; we shopped; we traveled. In a short time you have entered the lives of so many. Then we said good-bye. We will miss you. Good luck in your future plans.

Your American Mom, Dad and Sister

Dear Staci (Pooh)

Congratulations, kiddo, on a job well done. We're proud of you. Follow your dreams and always stay true to yourself.

Love ya,
Mom and Dad

Taking her place among controversial talk-show hosts as the "Oprah for the junior set," Ricki Lake speaks to such concerns as, "Mom, when my boyfriend gets out of jail, I'm taking him back."

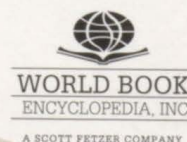

Lynn Goldsmith, LGI

The angel message of "fear not" strikes a deep chord with Americans' yearning for spiritual growth and comfort in a stressful time. People enjoy angel collectibles, angel sites on the Internet, and angel books and magazines.

"Some pretty cool people drink milk" is the message carried by a high-profile ad campaign featuring a raft of popular celebrities sporting a white upper lip on behalf of the healthy beverage. The milk-moustache effect is created with latex, a rubber-based paint.
