"...every day's a new day..."

A publication sees a lot of people in a hundred years. So does a building. For some of us, the most important four years of our lives have been spent inside these walls. That's why it matters so much when the walls change, when the windows change shape, when lockers are replaced, and classrooms shift and settle into different locations with a different look.

And there's more than a little bit of synchronicity involved: the hundred year anniversary of the CHS Mirror and the total remodeling of the high school building. Those are two very big landmarks in the history of the school, in the history of Corning graduates, in the history of the community.

Some of us will never forget what the school once looked like; some of us will never remember anything but what is being built right at this moment. Some of us, though, will span that bridge, and watch as the old becomes new.

"The Times They Are A-Changin'"

Annual Staff

In one century, millions of things have changed. Kids all have cell phones. Straight hair and tiny pony tails have replaced big hair and big bows. Courtship can be instigated by a text message. Wal-mart and McDonald's are household names. The television began a revolution that the computer and the internet have only added to. It is a new world in so many ways. . .

Annual Staff

... but some things never change. People are still people. Kids still wake up knowing a school day awaits. They still meet in the hallway. There are still playful shoves at lunchtime and tearful conversations in quiet corners. There are smiling glances across crowded rooms, teammates who feel like family, sudden understanding in a late afternoon classroom. Knowing how much we've changed allows us to acknowledge how much we're still the same.

Hats

Self-expression is always in fashion and the right hat makes it easy to add panache (and hide a bad hair day). All you need is a cute fedora or a jaunty newsboy cap.

Energy Drinks

Energy drinks are the beverage of choice among sleep-deprived students, despite concerns that they contain unhealthy levels of sugar and caffeine.

Pillow Pets

Monkey Slippers

It's a toy. It's a slipper. It's a fun fashion trend. Sock monkey slippers are popular in college dorms and at slumber parties.

Long Necklaces

Long, statement necklaces are trend-right. Gossip girls look luxe with Tiffany-style trinkets. Layered, chunky, vintage baubles create an alt-rock, art school vibe.

Over the Knee Boots
