

The Lord is my shepherd:

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil;

my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Dale Adams

OCTOBER 30, 1909 – JULY 31, 2004

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be
So He put His arms around you
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you suffer
And saw you fade away
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard working hands at rest
God broke our hearts to prove
He only takes the BEST.
It's lonesome here without you
We miss you more each day
When days are sad and lonely
Life doesn't seem the same
Since you've gone away
And everything goes wrong
We seem to hear you whisper,
"Cheer up and carry on."
Each time we see your picture
You seem to smile and say,
"Don't cry. I'm in God's keeping We'll meet again someday!"*

Dale Adams, 94, of Corning, died July 31, 2004, at Corning Nursing and Rehab. He was born to Wiley and Faye Adams on October 30, 1909, in Taylor County, Iowa. He grew up in the Gravity area. He was united in marriage with Tessie Howell on March 5, 1927. They were blessed with four children.

Dale and Tessie bought a farm in rural Mt. Etna in 1947 and lived there until retiring in 1972. They then built a house and moved to Corning.

Dale enjoyed farming, fishing, gardening, playing cards, and spending time with friends and family. He especially enjoyed the "young'uns," as he called them. Dale loved visiting and telling stories about the past.

Survivors include his sons, Dale (wife, Phyllis) Adams, Jr. of Carter Lake, Iowa, Dean (wife, Donna) Adams of Omaha, Nebraska; daughters, Mary Lou Lee of Corning, Iowa; Donna (husband, Herbert) Rogers of Council Bluffs, Iowa; sixteen grandchildren; thirty-five great-grandchildren; and twenty great-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife, Tessie, in 1992; two sisters, Mary Higgins and Eva Coy; grandchildren, Edward Dale Adams, Sharon Scott, and Richard Adams; great-grandchild, Gage Gibson; and son-in-law, James Lee.

*An Old Farmer
Leaves His Land*

He is done forever with spring plowing,
And walking thru the fields,
on Sunday morning
To see that all is well.

The whippoorwills, whose first
call he eagerly awaited,
Return but he does not hear them now.
The acres that he loved lie fallow -
Gone back to brush and sprouts.

I have said that he is done
with fields and plowing -
Yet I wonder. On Life's other side has he awakened
To tend again the farmlands of the Lord?

Corning, Iowa

Margaret Violet Serena Adams began her life journey as the second daughter of Ralph John and Maggie Jane (nee Meredith) McPherron on July 17, 1918 on a farm in Taylor County north of Gravity, Iowa and entered into her eternal rest on December 17, 2002 at the Alegent Health Mercy Hospital at Corning at the age of 84 years and 5 months.

She and her family lived on two other farms until she was five years old and the family moved back to the Oak Hill Church vicinity. She attended a one room country school in Taylor County through the eighth grade and then on to Corning High School where she graduated with the class of 1935 with a normal training certificate. She taught rural school for one and a half years until she was in a serious car accident. It took her a year and a half to recuperate from this accident.

On December 2, 1939 she was united in marriage with Leonard Adams. They lived on a farm north of Prescott for four years. A son John was born November 9, 1943. A year later they moved back to Leonard's home place southeast of Corning. Another son Michael (Mike) was born August 24, 1946. They lived on and worked this farm while their sons were growing up. They moved into Leonard's parent's home on Quincy Street in 1976.

She raised a big garden on the farm and enjoyed harvesting the food and cooking it. She and Leonard farmed together and milked a number of cows for many years. In later years she was forced to give up the big gardens due to arthritis but had large flowerbeds in town and enjoyed sharing them others as long as she was able. She enjoyed her cats and did a lot of reading when her eyes permitted. Margaret was a wonderful farm cook and readily shared her goodies with others.

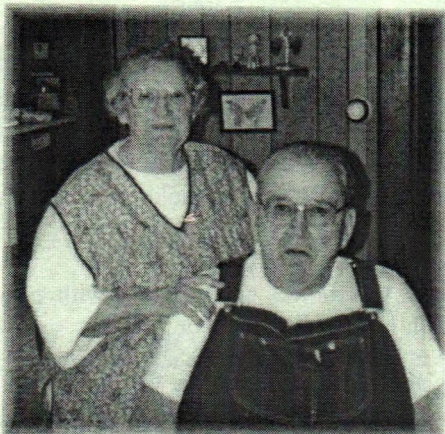

Margaret was a member of the United Methodist Church, Hope Circle, the Neighborly Neighbors Club, the DYD Club, the Departmental Garden Club and the Royal Neighbors of America.

She was preceded in death by her grandparents, her parents Ralph and Maggie, a sister in early childhood, her husband Leonard in 1994, and her son Mike in 1999.

Those left to cherish her memory include her son John and his wife Sandy of Roland, Iowa, and her daughter-in-law Barbara Adams of Corning, seven grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren.

May God grant comfort and strength to those who mourn her passing.

Tessie Adams

Tessie Belle Adams, 80, daughter of Allen and Maude McKee Howell, was born Aug. 22, 1911, at Carbon and died Feb. 21, 1992, at Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Corning.

On March 5, 1927, she married Lawrence Dale Adams at Gravity. They were the parents of four children. They farmed in Taylor and Adams Counties until 1972 when they moved to their new home in Corning.

She was a homemaker and centered her life around her family.

She was preceded in death by her parents; three sisters, Gertie Curry, Viola Williams and Millie Loney; two brothers, Arthur and Harold Howell; and an infant grandson, Richard Adams.

She is survived by her husband Dale of Corning; her children, Dale Adams Jr. and his wife Phyllis of Carter Lake, Mary Lou Lee of Corning, Donna Rogers and her husband Herbert of Gretna, Neb., and Dean Adams and his wife Donna of Omaha, Neb.; 18 grandchildren; 37 great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandson; two brothers, Glen Howell and his wife Maggie of Wishram, Ore., and Lester Howell and his wife Marjorie of Portland, Ore.; and two sisters-in-law, Millie Howell and Juanita Howell; and a son-in-law, Jim Lee.

Services were held Feb. 24 at Coen-Beaty Funeral Home in Corning with the Rev. Sandra Wainwright of Villisca officiating. Casket bearers were Jim Lee, Terry Curry, Gene Cooley, Larry Martin, Darwin Mullen and Jimmy Williams.

Burial was in Oak Hill Cemetery at Corning.

God hath not promised
    Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
    All our lives through;
God hath not promised
    Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
    Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
    Strength for the days,
Rest for the labor,
    Light for the way.
Grace for the trials,
    Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
    Undying love . . . .

JOSEPH DONALD AKIN

Joseph Donald Akin, son of Frank and Effie Drennan Akin, was born at Corning, Iowa, Oct. 26, 1914 and entered into rest Sept. 9, 1984, at the age of 69 years, 10 months and 13 days.

Following his graduation from Corning High School he attended the University of Nebraska. From there, he entered the military service and served his country in World War II. After his discharge, he returned to Corning and has since been associated with the Akin Lumber Company.

On September 19, 1942 he was united in marriage with Anita Marie Scott at Arlington, Va. To this union two children were born, Diana and Scott.

He was preceded in death by an infant daughter, Mary Theresa; his parents, Frank and Effie Akin and a sister, Eleanor Waugh.

Don is survived by his wife, Anita Akin of Corning, Iowa; his daughter, Diana Larsen of Nebraska City, Neb.; his son, Scott Akin of Corning, Iowa; six grandchildren, Theresa, Timothy, Peter, Jennifer, Christopher and Andrew Larsen; and two nephews, Craig Waugh and Donald Waugh of Atlantic, Iowa.

"I condole with you, we have lost a most dear and valuable friend. But it is the will of God and nature, that these mortal bodies be laid aside, when the soul is to enter into a real life. This is rather an embryo state, a preparation for living.

"A man is not completely born until he is dead. Why then should we grieve that a new child is born among the immortals, a new member added to their happy society? We are spirits. That bodies should be lent to us while they can afford us pleasure, assist us in acquiring knowledge, or in doing good to our fellow creatures, is a kind and benevolent act of God. When they become unfit for these purposes and afford us pain instead of pleasure and instead of an aid become an encumbrance, and answer none of the intentions for which they were given, it is equally kind and benevolent that a way is provided by which we may get rid of them.

"Death is that way. We ourselves in some cases prudently choose a partial death. A mangled, painful limb, which cannot be restored, we willingly cut off. He who plucks out a tooth, parts with it freely, since the pain goes with it; and he who quits the whole body, parts at once with all pains and possibilities of pains and diseases which it was liable to, or capable of making him suffer.

"Our friend and we were invited aboard on a party of pleasure, which is to last forever. His chair was ready first, and he is gone before us. We could not all conveniently start together, and why should you and I be grieved at this, since we are soon to follow, and know where to find him? Adieu, Benjamin Franklin."

Mrs. Alford moved with her parents and sister from Brooks to Corning in 1930. She graduated from Corning High School in 1935 and attended Tabor Jr. College for one year. She worked as secretary in the Eugene W. Mullin Law Office for 21 years.

She married Lee Alford April 6, 1940 in Maryville, Mo.

Her hobby was golfing and she was a member of the Happy Hollow Country Club. She was a member of the Corning United Methodist Church and a member of the American Legion Auxiliary of Ourcq Post No. 117 for 48 years, serving in all the offices, and was historian at the time of her death.

She was preceded in death by her parents and husband.

Survivors include two daughters, Judy (husband Frank) Acinger of Plano, Texas and Janet (husband Dale) Boswell of Corning; and a sister, Jeanne (husband Clyde) Copley of Austin, Minn.

Casketbearers were Alan Acinger, Christopher Boswell, Patrick Boswell, Joel Boswell, Daniel Boswell, and Fred Copley.

Memorials may be directed to the Corning Public Library or the American Legion Monument Fund.

Coen-Beaty Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

CORA R. ALLEN

Cora R. Allen, the daughter of John E. and Clara Redmond Brown, was born at Red Cloud, Nebraska on October 22, 1904; and she entered into rest at the Creston Manor Nursing Home in Creston, Iowa on November 12, 1989 at the age of 85 years and 20 days.

Cora worked at the State Office in Des Moines until moving to California. She retired from the Bank of America and later returned to Adams County to live. Cora loved flowers and birds, always had a bird for a pet until she could no longer care for it. Her greatest enjoyment was visiting with family and friends; and going out to eat.

She will be remembered as someone always willing to lend a helping hand to those in need. Even when her health failed her in the last year, she never complained, and in the last days at the nursing home and hospital, she never gave up. Those who took care of her needs said Cora was always "a lovely, little lady."

Cora loved her family and although many miles apart, she kept in contact with them and visited whenever possible. Surviving to honor her memory are her son, James Allen & his wife Audrey of Boxford, Mass.; four grandchildren: Jeffrey Allen of Herndon, Va.; Richard Allen of Washington D.C.; Bradley Allen of E. Streadberg, Pa.; and Lorraine Allen of Boxford, Mass.; and by two great-grandchildren. Also surviving are two sisters: Mary (Mrs. Ivan) Fickel of Creston; and Helen Barger of Alliance, Neb.; her special friend, Ralph Hickman of Corning; and a sister-in-law, Verna Brown of Des Moines, Iowa; other relatives and many friends.

Cora was preceded in death by her father in May of 1907 and her mother in November of 1960, as well as by three brothers and one sister. May God give comfort and strength to those who mourn.

Burton A. Ambrose, the only son of A. J. and Nancy Jane Algoe Ambrose, was born on November 10, 1917 in Adams County, Iowa near Stringtown; and he entered into rest at his home in Creston, Iowa on January 16, 1986 at the age of 68 years, 2 months and 6 days.

He grew to manhood on the family farm where he was born and attended local schools.

On August 28, 1940 he was united in marriage with Dorothy Wilson at Rock Port, Missouri. This marriage was blessed with the birth of one daughter, Shirley. Burton and Dorothy farmed all of their lives together in Union and Adams counties. He also drove a school bus for 13 years for the Cromwell and later, the Creston schools. They retired into Creston in March of 1978.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Burton is survived by his loving wife, Dorothy of Creston, Iowa; his daughter, Shirley Simmer & her husband, Larry of Ankeny, Iowa; two granddaughters, Bonnie & Karen, and a grandson, Kelly, all of Ankeny. Also surviving are one sister, Wilma Beckwith of Gardena, Calif., one nephew, two nieces, and many friends.

Burton's family and friends will remember him in many ways: as a member of the Cromwell United Church of Christ; as an avid camper who loved to travel; as a grandfather, father, & husband who always had time for them; and as a good conversationalist who really enjoyed relaxing and spending time with his friends.

May God give His Comfort and Strength to those who Mourn.

H. Myrtle Ambrose

Services were held Monday, Nov. 21, at the First Baptist Church in Creston for H. Myrtle Ambrose, 91, of Kent. The Rev. Ronald Schrock officiated with burial in the West Fairview Cemetery in Lenox.

Mrs. Ambrose was born March 7, 1897, in Missouri to Lewis and Nancy Jane Blair Barker. She died Nov. 17, 1988, at Greater Community Hospital in Creston.

She married Clarence Ambrose Feb. 7, 1917, in Bedford. He died Aug. 28, 1967. Mrs. Ambrose lived in Lenox before moving to Union County in 1967. She was a homemaker and a member of the First Baptist Church.

Survivors include three daughters, Ferne Jackson and husband John, Helen Riedel and husband Richard, all of Kent, and Delma Bittner and husband Edward of Creston; three sons, Lyle, Russell and Eldon Ambrose, all of Kent; 12 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; two brothers, Ernest Barker of Corning and Harvey Barker of Arizona; and a sister, Minnie Bauer of Blair, Neb.

Memorials may be directed to the First Baptist Church in Creston.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Ella Amdor

Ella Irene Amdor, 92, daughter of William and Anna Toohey Devereaux, was born July 30, 1899, in Adams County west of Carbon and died Dec. 7, 1991, at the Good Samaritan Center in Villisca.

She attended rural school through the eighth grade and then graduated from Corning High School in 1918. While in high school she worked part-time for the A.B. Turner Store and then, after graduation, worked there full time as a bookkeeper until her marriage.

On June 10, 1919, she married Bennett Nicholas Amdor at St. Patrick Catholic Church in Corning. They were the parents of seven children. They owned and farmed the land north of Carbon which had been homesteaded by Ben's father, Edward R. Amdor. In 1975, they were the recipients of the Century Farm Award.

She was a life-long member of St. Patrick Catholic Church, an active member of the St. Patrick Altar Society, Rose Ann Auxiliary, and a card club as long as her health permitted.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Ben; two daughters, Virginia in infancy and Helen Marie in 1937, at the age of 13; her daughter-in-law, Inez Amdor; four brothers, and five sisters.

She is survived by her children, Jack Amdor and his wife Doris and Barbara Shuler and her husband Olin, all of Corning, William Amdor and Beth Mueller and her husband Harry, all of Omaha, Neb., and Edward Amdor and his wife Jinx of Bedford; 21 grandchildren; 52 great-grandchildren; and eight great-great-grandchildren; and a sister-in-law, Dorothy Devereaux of Creston.

Services were held Dec. 11 at St. Patrick Catholic Church with the Rev. John Bertogli officiating. Casket bearers were her grandsons Dale, Jim, Steven, Bennett, and Michael Amdor, John and Martin Mueller and Richard Shuler.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery at Corning with Coen-Beaty Funeral Home in charge of the arrangements.

Has found the path to glory...

Jack was a farmer all his life and held positions on the Adams County Board of Supervisors from 1963 to 1970 and a F.H.A. board member. He was also a 4-H leader for Jasper Specialists. He received the Rotary Conservation award and the Farm Family of the Week Award. He and Doris enjoyed camping and sharing their time with their grandchildren and great grandchildren. They were privileged to celebrate 61 years of marriage together.

He was preceded in death by his parents, wife Doris on December 17, 1999; sister-in-law, Inez Amdor; sisters, Virginia Ruth and Helen Marie Amdor.

He is survived by their five children, Dale (Nancy) Amdor of Corning, Jim (Beverly) Amdor of Corning, Sharon (Jerry) Russell of Prescott, Marjorie (Patrick) Cramer of Omaha, Nebraska, Jacquelyn (Paul) Wynn of Corning; eighteen grandchildren and twenty-one great grandchildren; brothers, Bill Amdor of Omaha, Nebraska, and Ed (Jinx) Amdor of Corning; sisters, Barbara (Olin) Shuler of Corning and Beth (Harry) Mueller of Omaha, Nebraska, and a sister-in-law, Imogene Miller, also of Corning; nieces; nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.

He will be greatly missed by all who knew and loved him.

This journey began...

J. "Jack" Amdor was born April 15, 1920, north of Carbon, Iowa. He was the son of Bennett Nicholas Amdor and Ella Irene Devereaux. He entered into rest July 13, 2002, at Jennie Edmondson Hospital in Council Bluffs, Iowa, at the age of 82 years, 2 months, and 28 days.

Jack attended High Point Country School for 8 years and graduated from Corning High School with the class of 1938. He was a life-long resident of Adams County, living near Carbon as a youth and soon after his marriage moved near Brooks.

On December 8, 1938, Jack was united in marriage with Doris Arlene Miller at Maryville, Missouri. Jack and Doris started farming north of Carbon, Iowa. In 1944 they moved to a farm 2 1/2 miles west of Brooks, and in 1949 they purchased and moved to the home place southeast of Brooks. This union was blessed with the birth of five children.

May be directed to the family in Lauren's name to be determined at a later date

Lauren Elisabeth Anderson was born in Corning, IA, on February 4, 1990, and died June 10, 2010 at Creighton University Medical Center in Omaha, NE, following a car accident.

Lauren graduated from Corning High School in 2008. While in school she was active in FCCLA and cheerleading, which was her passion. Lauren was also a member of the Carl Kings & Queens 4-H club and especially enjoyed showing rabbits and doing communication projects. She was also an active member of the youth group at St. Patrick Catholic Church. In the summer of 2007 she traveled to Japan as an exchange student, which was one of her lifelong goals.

Following high school, Lauren attended Des Moines Area Community College and then the Independence College of Cosmetology in Missouri. She graduated from ICC in March and was scheduled to graduate from Hair Tech in Creston with her Iowa certification later this month. At the time of her death she was mentoring at Studio 406 in Corning, something she was truly enjoying.

Lauren made friends wherever she went and will always be remembered for her smile and her ability to laugh at herself. She was a great sister and adored all of her cousins. She'll be remembered for her lifelong love of anything Barbie, her devotion to her dog Ollie, her passion for shoes, clothing and jewelry, and her knack for destroying cell phones and digital cameras.

Ransom Anderson

Ransom Karl Anderson, 91, of Prescott was born Aug. 18, 1898, at Corning, the son of Millard F. and Louisa Brown Anderson, and died March 5, 1990, at Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Corning.

He was a farmer and lifetime resident of the Prescott area until moving to Colonial Manor in Corning in January 1985. He was never married.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, William and Millard (Bud) Anderson; and four sisters, Dr. Susan Shaus, Grace Jose, Nettie Anderson and Pauline Anderson.

He is survived by a niece, Helen Anderson Gray, and many cousins.

Services were held March 7 at the Roland-Lindsay Golden Rule Funeral Home with the Rev. Jeanne D. Groom officiating. Burial was in the Mount Zion Cemetery by Prescott.

Memorials are suggested to the family.

Adams County Free Press,
Aug 26, 1993.

Russell Anderson

Services were held Aug. 20 for Russell Anderson, 90, of Villisca at the Strand Lutheran Church with the Rev. Karen Hansel officiating.

Russell (Rusty) Anderson was born May 14, 1903, in Adams County, Iowa, near Carbon, to August and Etta Caldwell Anderson. He died at Mercy Hospital in Corning Aug. 17, 1993.

Mr. Anderson moved with his family to Merna, Neb., in 1910 and attended school there. After completing his education he farmed with his brother Lloyd near Merna.

On Nov. 11, 1938, he married Bertha Olson Anderson in Rock Port, Mo. They lived on a farm in Nebraska five years before returning to Adams County where they farmed until retiring in 1978. They moved to Louisville, Ky., to be near their son Garold Anderson and his family, returning to Villisca in 1981.

Mr. Anderson was preceded in death by his parents; his wife Bertha; and one brother.

Survivors include his son Garold Anderson (wife Elaine) of Louisville, Ky.; four grandsons; two granddaughters; and 10 great-grandchildren.

Paul bearers were Richard Anderson, Russell Anderson, Jim Olson, Nicholas Anderson, Don Wolf, and Kevin Olson.

Honorary pall bearers were Jim Williams, Orville Mitchell, Dean King, Earl Marsh, Glen Greenfield, Joe Lines, Dale Kimpson, Richard Cantieri, Murl Greenfield, and Tom Ingersoll.

Wolfe Funeral Home of Villisca was in charge of arrangements.

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

She attended school at Corning, graduating with the Class of 1942. She taught school for one year in Carl Township.

On July 11, 1943, Mae was united in marriage with Leon Junior Antisdell at Corning, Iowa. Two children were born to bless this union. They lived in Carl, Iowa for 15 years, then moved to Corning in 1958 where she worked as a nurse's aide at Colonial Manor Nursing Home, and three years at the Adams County Home as head cook. In April, 1973 she began employment at the Greater Community Hospital, Creston, Iowa where she was employed at the time of her death. Her retirement date would have been effective January 1, 1990, but with built-up vacation time, the date of her death was her last scheduled working day. The hospital and personnel hosted a retirement party for Mae on October 24. She will be remembered for the goodies she took to the hospital.

Mae was a valued member of Ourcq Post 117, American Legion Auxiliary, having served as president in 1973 and 1974, and was presently a member of the Executive Board and had held other offices in the Auxiliary. She was noted for "Mae's Dressing" at dinners, and her humor always made working with her a joy. She was a member of the Carl United Methodist Church while living there. She was interested in community affairs, was an avid reader and enjoyed crocheting and cooking. Her grandchildren were a great joy and she spent time with them often.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two brothers-in-law, Carl Tugel and Earl Bramow.

Mae is survived by her husband, Junior Antisdell of Corning, Iowa, her children, Larry Leon Antisdell and his wife Judy of Corning, and Nancy Jo Nielsen and her husband Paul of Des Moines, two grandchildren, Blythe and Alec Nielsen, a sister, Venessa Bramow of Creston, a brother Dale Gourley and his wife Shirley of Sumner, Washington, a sister-in-law, Freda Tugel of Corning, several aunts, uncles, nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

CHARLES LARRY ARCHER

Charles Larry Archer, son of Vern and Alta Brown Archer was born December 16, 1942 at Creston, Iowa and entered into rest January 17, 1990 at Bishop Clarkson Memorial Hospital, Omaha, Nebraska at the age of 47 years, 1 month and 1 day.

He attended school in Corning, graduating with the class of 1962. He took a special course in Denver, Colorado to prepare him for work with flower care and arrangements, and returned to Corning to work for a time at Jackson Flower and Gifts. He subsequently bought and operated the Flower and Garden Center in Corning for nearly twelve years when his health forced his retirement in 1980.

On December 5, 1964 Larry was united in marriage with Cheri Scott in the Methodist Church at Corning, Iowa. A son Michael was born to bless this union. They celebrated their 25th anniversary in 1989.

Larry was always interested in the Community and was a member of many organizations. He was an active member of the United Methodist Church, a member of Emblem Chapter 64 and Instruction Lodge #275, a charter member of the Corning Jaycees, served on the Adams County Fair Board since 1965, and was Scoutmaster of the Boy Scouts of America for many years. He was privileged to see his son, Michael earn the highest rank of Eagle Scout in 1985.

He enjoyed his family and many friends, and was living proof that to have friends, you be a friend. He was a friend to all, and never met a stranger, either in his business or his personal life.

He was preceded in death by his father.

Larry is survived by his wife, Cheri, his son, Michael and his mother, Alta, all of Corning, Iowa, two brothers, Duane and his wife Dorine of West Des Moines and Dean and his wife Jean of Fort Dodge, Iowa, several nieces and nephews and many many friends. He will be missed.

Her Journey's Just Begun

*Don't think of her as gone away —
Her journey's just begun,
Life holds so many facets —
This earth is only one...
Just think of her as resting
From the sorrows and the tears
In a place of warmth and comfort
Where there are no days and years.
Think how she must be wishing
That we could know today
How nothing but our sadness
Can really pass away.
And think of her as living
In the hearts of those she touched...
For nothing loved is ever lost —
And she was loved so much.*

Mary Elizabeth (Russell) Armstrong, the fourth child of Harry and Mabel Russell, was born November 14, 1914, in South Auburn, Nebraska. She graduated from Brownville High School in Nebraska and attended Peru State College. She then taught in a rural Nebraska school for four years.

She married Dean W. Armstrong on June 4, 1937, in Brownville. They had three children—Margaret, Ed and Don.

Mary and Dean farmed east of New Market for four years before buying their farm northwest of Gravity in 1941. They farmed there until Dean's death in 1978.

Mary worked as the switchboard operator at National Farmers Organization in Corning for 26 years. She read the paper daily and was interested in all current events. She took great pleasure in her flowers and loved to travel, both in the United States and internationally. Staying in touch with her scattered family was important to her, and she was especially proud of her grandchildren's accomplishments.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents, her husband Dean, her brothers, Harold and Howard Russell, and her sisters Ruby Owens, Lucille Hicks, Dorothy Albers and Neva Mae Walker.

She is survived by her daughter Margaret and husband Mark Heffron of Iowa City, Iowa; son Ed and wife Cheri Armstrong of Loveland, Colorado; son Don and wife Nancy Armstrong of Longmont, Colorado; grandchildren Nick Armstrong and wife Amanda of Fort Collins, Colorado; Heather Armstrong of Ashland, Oregon; Holly Armstrong and husband David Stern of Fife, Washington; Matt Heffron and wife Renee of Seattle, Washington; Peter Armstrong and fiancée Melissa Straten of Denver, Colorado; great grandchildren Adrian, Tony, Savanna and Josh Armstrong of Fort Collins, Colorado; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Mary's family would like to give a special thank you to all the staff at Vintage Park Apartments for the exceptionally kind and loving care she received during her stay there.

The Twenty Third Psalm

*THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES:
HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: HE LEADETH ME IN THE
PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE..
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF
THE SHADOW OF DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVIL:
FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME. THOU PREPAREST A TABLE
BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL; MY CUP
RUNNETH OVER.. SURELY GOODNESS AND MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS OF MY LIFE: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE HOUSE OF THE LORD FOR EVER.....*
