

Exeter News Advertiser
Aug 3, 1995
✓

Dale Iiams, Murray

AFTON — Dale W. Iiams, 89, 1381 150th Avenue, Murray, died Aug. 1, 1995, at his home.

Services will be 10:30 a.m. Friday at the Church of Christ in Murray. Burial will be in the Union Cemetery in Murray. There is open visitation after 9 a.m. today and family night 5 to 8 p.m. today at the Stroud-Lindsay-Powers Funeral Home, 612 N. Dodge Street, Afton. Memorials may be directed to the Church of Christ in Murray.

Mr. Iiams was born July 18, 1906, in Madison County to Arther and Florence (Kirk) Iiams. He attended rural schools in Madison County. On June 2, 1928, he married Della Leo Bloomquist in Winterset.

He farmed all his life in Clark County, retiring in 1991. He lived in Clarke County all his married life. He was a member of the former Madison Church in Lorimor.

Survivors include a son, Wilbur "Junior" (wife Alice) Beardsley of Des Moines; two daughters, Ramona (husband Richard) Leeper of Carlisle and Naomi (husband Jerry) Young of Des Moines; four

Dale Iiams
retired farmer grandchildren; and eight great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; wife; four brothers, Everett, Boyd, Nathan, and Loren in infancy; and four sisters, Vella Pettit, Thelma Thurman, Velma Gibbons and Ethel Cook.

Dale Iiams, Murray

AFTON — Dale W. Iiams, 89, 1381 150th Avenue, Murray, died Aug. 1, 1995, at his home.

Arrangements are pending with the Stroud-Lindsay-Powers Funeral Home, 612 N. Dodge Street.

Adams County Free Press
April 7, 1994

Eldon L. Ingram

Eldon Lawrence Ingram, 67, was born Aug. 4, 1926, four miles west of Gravity to Lawrence and Alice Brooks Ingram. He died at his home south of Corning, Iowa, March 29, 1994.

He attended grade school at Ladoga and high school at New Market. He helped his father farm until he joined the Army in January 1945. He was stationed at Camp Maxey, Texas.

He was married to Marcella Ruth Williams May 20, 1945, at Camp Maxey with the Chaplain (Captain) W. Gjedde officiating.

After returning home they rented a farm in Taylor County. A year later they purchased a farm in Adams County where they have lived the past 47 years. Conserving the soil for future generations was one of his main concerns. He also did trucking and custom baling and combining. His hobbies included fishing, deer and coyote hunting with his grandsons and snowmobiling.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother Alvin; infant sister; son-in-law Rex DeVore; and brother-in-law Robert Douthit.

He is survived by his wife; daughters Eldena (husband Richard) Freshour of Lenox, Jeannine DeVore of Atlantic, and Diana Cornish of West Des Moines; six grandchildren; a sister Dortha Douthit of Red Oak; brother, Lowell Ingram of Loveland, Colo; sister-in-law, Carolyn Ingram Johnson.

Services were held April 1 at the Coen-Beaty Funeral Home, Corning, with Rev. Howard Wells officiating.

Casket bearers were Larry Swartz, Lyle Schrader, Scott Herrmann, Richard Freshour, Douglas Peterson, Edward Schafer.

Honorary bearers were Dale Ingram, Estle Foster, Brian Curtis, George Scofield, Harry Wiechman, Clark Peterson, John Holbrook.

Burial was at Oak Hill Cemetery, Corning.

Arrangements were by Coen-Beaty Funeral Home, Corning.

Adams County Free Press
June 15, 1989.

Ruth Remalla Inlow

Daisy Ruth Givan, 86, was born July 6, 1902 at Grant, Ia. and died June 5, 1989. She was the daughter of Herman and Clara Dutcher Givan.

She lived in the Grant and Quincy communities until she married Wilbur (Bud) Remalla in 1931. They lived in Corning where they had a trucking business, and then owned restaurants in Pella and Dayton until his death in 1966. Ruth returned to Corning where she married Lloyd Inlow in 1967. They lived in Orient for several years before moving to Creston. In June, 1988 she suffered a stroke and moved to Crest Haven Care Center.

She was preceded in death by both husbands and a daughter, Frances Eugene Remalla. She is survived by one brother, Jesse Givan of Corning; step-daughter, Betty (Mrs. John) McIntosh; step daughter-in-law, Lenore Inlow, both of Creston; grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Services were held June 7 at Coen-Beaty Funeral Home in Creston with the Rev. George W. Campbell officiating. Casket bearers were Rick McIntosh, Ralph Nurnberg, Willard McIntosh, Dan McIntosh, Duane White, and Tim McIntosh. Burial was in Walnut Grove Cemetery at Corning.

Inman, Ervin

Ervin Inman Adams County Free Press
OCTOBER 17, 1996

Ervin E. Inman, 87, Corning, was born to Espy and Icy May Johnson Inman Jan. 26, 1909, near Oakland. He died Oct. 12, 1996, at Alegent Health Mercy Hospital in Corning after a long illness.

He was married to Velma Campbell on May 29, 1929.

Mr. Inman was a farmer and had served two terms on the Adams County Board of Supervisors.

He was preceded in death by his parents; infant daughter Hazel; one grandson; brother Bill; sister Iva Killion; and two half-sisters Marjorie Osler and Velma Boyd.

He is survived by his wife; son Leland (wife Ella Mae) Inman, Bridgewater; and daughter Coleen (husband Dean) Hill, Carbon; seven grandchildren; 26 great-grandchildren; sisters Letha Campbell, Oakland, and Pearl Niemi, Ukiah, Calif.

Graveside services were held Oct. 14 at the Quincy Cemetery at Quincy with Rev. Elmer West officiating.

Memorials may be directed to Alegent Health Mercy Hospital in Corning.

Wolfe Funeral Home, Villisca, was in charge of arrangements.

—Service For—

MRS. LOTTIE INMAN

—Born—

On July 15, 1901

—Entered Into Rest—

On September 29, 1969

—Age—

68 years, 2 months, 14 days

—Services—

Thursday, Oct. 2, 1969 at 2 p. m.
from the Roland Funeral Home
in Corning, Iowa

—Clergyman—

Rev. Lester Moore

—Interment—

Nodaway Cemetery

—Music by—

Mrs. Doyle Tranbarger

—Pianist—

Mrs. Joe Cook

—Pall Bearers—

Ralph Hickman
Robert Drake
Frederick Drake
Wilbur King
Byron Stanley
Ivan Heaton

Inman, Velma

Velma Inman, Corning

Adams County
Free Press

Velma Inman, 96, of Corning, died Jan. 9, 2005, at Alegent Health Mercy Hospital in Corning. Services were 2 p.m. Jan. 11 at Coen-Beaty-Pearson Funeral Service in Corning with the Rev. John Greenlee officiating. Burial was in Quincy Cemetery, rural Adams County. Memorials may be directed in her name. Coen-Beaty-Pearson Family Funeral Service was in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Inman was born April 22, 1908, in Cumberland to Floyd and Myrtle Smith Campbell. She graduated from Elliott High School in 1926. On May 30, 1929, she married Ervin Inman in Red Oak. Mrs. Inman was a homemaker and a member of Mount Etna Methodist Church.

Survivors include son Leland (wife Ella Mae) Inman of Bridgewater; daughter Coleen Hill of Corning; sisters Vera Snyder of Carbon and Verda Boham of Corning; seven grandchildren; 28 great-grandchildren; and 12 great-great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband Ervin Inman; sister Quilla Dhone; infant daughter Hazel; brothers-in-law Hollis Dhone, Lawrence Snyder and Harold Boham; grandson David Hill; and son-in-law Dean Hill.

Faye L. Insley

Services for Faye L. Insley, 86, Corning, were held Friday, Sept. 1, from Roland-Lindsay Powers Chapel in Corning, the Rev. Richard Layman and the Rev. Robert Smith officiating. Burial was in Methodist Grove Cemetery in Brooks.

Mrs. Insley was born Feb. 17, 1909, in Taylor County to Charles T. and Lillian Belle Gustine Kapple, and died Wednesday, Aug. 30, at Good Samaritan Nursing Home in Villisca.

She married Guy Insley in 1951 in South Bend, Ind. They lived in Mishawaka, Ind., before moving to Corning in the late 1980s. She lived here until moving to the nursing home in 1990.

She worked for Uniroyal Rubber Co. and was a member of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Insley was preceded in death by her parents; husband; infant son; brother-in-law and sister-in-law.

Survivors include brothers Arthur (wife Dorris) Kapple of Corning and Roy (wife Evelyn) Kapple of Council Bluffs; and a sister, Bernice Smith of Red Oak.

Casket bearers were Byron Kapple, Terry Kapple, Don Smith, Marvin Smith, Gene Smith, and Lester Bozwell.

MARY B. IRELAND

-BORN-

April 7, 1901
Nevada, Iowa

-ENTERED TO REST-

June 26, 1980
Corning, Iowa

-AGE-

79 Years, 2 Months, 19 Days

-SERVICES-

Saturday, June 28, 1980
10:00 o'clock a.m.
Larkin - Roland Funeral Home
Corning, Iowa

-OFFICIATING-

Rev. Manzel Berlin

-MUSIC BY-
Kathleen Cook
Organist

-SELECTIONS-
"Amazing Grace"
"How Great Thou Art"

-CASKET BEARERS-

John Jones
Eugene Mullin
Byron Stanley
Harry Coulter
Fred Andrews
Paul Gauthier

-INTERMENT-

Greenfield Cemetery
Greenfield, Iowa

Helen Irvin

Funeral services for Helen Irvin, 88 of Bedford, who died Sunday, June 22, at the Bedford Nursing and Rehab Center were held Wednesday, June 25, 2008 at 1 p.m. at the Ritchie Funeral Home in Bedford. Interment was held in the Elmwood Cemetery in Coin with military rites by the John F. Harding American Legion Post No. 164.

Helen Irvin, daughter of Robert A. and Edna Vawter Irvin, was born

Irvin, Helen
b Oct. 31, 1919
d June 22, 2008

October 31, 1919, in Elmo, Mo.

Helen moved with her family to a farm between Blanchard and Coin, in Page County Iowa, in 1920. Helen attended Coin Consolidated School in Coin, graduating in 1937.

Helen worked as a waitress in Shenandoah, and also in a variety store. In 1943 she joined the U.S. Navy. Upon completion of boot training in New York she completed her tour of duty as a Navy mail clerk in San Francisco, Calif.

Returning to Bedford, in 1946 she spent a short time on the family farm before becoming secretary and bookkeeper for the Thompson Wholesale Company in Clarinda. She became the company manager upon the death of her employer and then moved from Clarinda to St. Joseph, Mo., when ownership of the company was purchased by St. Joseph Tobacco and Candy. She remained with the company until her retirement in 1985. Helen then purchased her home in Bedford to live close to family.

Helen loved sports of all kinds, was a member of the Coin High School girls' basketball team. In the Navy she was on the USA Wave softball team in San Francisco. She enjoyed bowling and was on two teams while living in Clarinda and bowled on a team while living in St. Joseph. When she moved to Bedford following retirement, she rejoined her Clarinda teammates and bowled until her health failed.

Helen was a member of the Bedford United Methodist Church and the Bedford American Legion.

Surviving Helen are sisters Dorothy Myers of Canton, S.D., Velma and husband Harold Shepherd of Gowrie, and Jacqueline and husband James Jacobs of Hawarden, brother-in-law Harold Gilbert of Bedford and sister-in-law June Irvin of Bedford..

Helen was preceded in death by her parents, sisters Lois Williams and Annalea Gilbert, and brothers Leonard and Jim Irvin.

—Memorial Service For—

DANIEL RAY ISMAN

—Born—

On February 19, 1945

—Entered Into Rest—

On August 23, 1970

—Age—

25 years, 6 months, 4 days

—Services—

Sunday, Sept. 6, 1970 at 2 p. m.
from the United Methodist Church
in Corning, Iowa

—Clergyman—

Rev. Lester Moore

—Music by—

Mrs. Dannie Schafer

—Pianist—

Mrs. Joe Cook

—Flower Bearers—

Mrs. Wendell Bell
Mrs. Kenneth Brown

Ingram, Eldon L.

Eldon L. Ingram APRIL 7, 1994

Eldon Lawrence Ingram, 67, was born Aug. 4, 1926, four miles west of Gravity to Lawrence and Alice Brooks Ingram. He died at his home south of Corning, Iowa, March 29, 1994.

He attended grade school at Ladoga and high school at New Market. He helped his father farm until he joined the Army in January 1945. He was stationed at Camp Maxey, Texas.

He was married to Marcella Ruth Williams May 20, 1945, at Camp Maxey with the Chaplain (Captain) W. Gjedde officiating.

After returning home they rented a farm in Taylor County. A year later they purchased a farm in Adams County where they have lived the past 47 years. Conserving the soil for future generations was one of his main concerns. He also did trucking and custom baling and combining. His hobbies included fishing, deer and coyote hunting with is grandsons and snowmobiling.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother Alvin; infant sister; son-in-law Rex DeVore; and brother-in-law Robert Douthit.

He is survived by his wife; daughters Eldena (husband Richard) Freshour of Lenox, Jeannine DeVore of Atlantic, and Diana Cornish of West Des Moines; six grandchildren; a sister Dortha Douthit of Red Oak; brother, Lowell Ingram of Loveland, Colo; sister-in-law, Carolyn Ingram Johnson.

Services were held April 1 at the Coen-Beaty Funeral Home, Corning, with Rev. Howard Wells officiating.

Casket bearers were Larry Swartz, Lyle Schrader, Scott Herrmann, Richard Freshour, Douglas Peterson, Edward Schafer.

Honorary bearers were Dale Ingram, Estle Foster, Brian Curtis, George Scofield, Harry Wiechman, Clark Peterson, John Holbrook.

Burial was at Oak Hill Cemetery, Corning.

Arrangements were by Coen-Beaty Funeral Home, Corning.

Adams County Free Press

Isman, George Jr.

George Isman, Jr.

OCTOBER 31, 1991

George Thomas Isman, Jr., 71, son of George Thomas, Sr. and Gladys Leake Isman, was born Oct. 18, 1920, in Perry, Mo., and died Oct. 24, 1991, at his home in Lenox.

He moved with his family to Corning when he was five years old and was later a resident of the Lenox area. He farmed for 35 years before being employed by Totes and J.T. Industries Limited, both in Lenox. He retired in 1982.

He was active in the Lenox Stock and Saddle Club and a member of the Lenox Gun Club.

On Dec. 29, 1939, he was married to Doris Spring at Corning. They were the parents of two sons.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a son, Daniel, in 1970.

He is survived by his son Richard Isman and his wife Rosemary of Lenox; a step-daughter, Patricia Rogers and her husband Larry of Lenox; two other step-daughters, Janet Reed and husband Greg of Norwalk and Mary Preston and her husband Charles of Omaha, Neb.; two granddaughters; 10 step-grandchildren; and one step-great-grandchild.

Services were held Oct. 28 at Roland-Lindsay Funeral Home in Corning with the Rev. John Bertogli officiating. Casket bearers were Kenneth Hinshaw, Bill Campbell, Mervin Walter, Danny Crowell, Richard (Dick) Robinson and Jeff Bush. Honorary bearers were Wayne McDonald, Ed Talty, Larry Rogers, Wendell Hill, Ronald Travis and Lloyd Travis.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery at Corning.

Adams County Free Press