*God hath not promised
Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
All our lives through.
God hath not promised
Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
Peace without pain.
But God hath promised
Strength for the day,
Rest for the labor,
Light for the way,
Grace for the trials,
Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy,
Undying love . . .*

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

The Best

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be.
So He put His arms around you
And whispered "Come to Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands at rest.
God broke our hearts to prove to us,
He only takes the best.*

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

Vernon F. Lawrence

APRIL 20, 1931 - JANUARY 7, 2004

Vernon F. Lawrence was born April 20, 1931, to J.H. and Acta Faye (Pugh) Lawrence in Lincoln Center Township in Adams County. Vernon entered eternal rest on January 7, 2004, at Montgomery County Memorial Hospital at the age of 72 years, 8 months, 18 days.

Vernon was united in marriage to Carmelita Young on February 11, 1951, in Prescott, Iowa. To this union, two children were born, Dennis and Dee.

Vernon attended Corning High School. During the years, Vernon traveled to Minnesota to work in the potato fields, worked in the rock quarry in Grant, and in 1951 started working for the Adams County Rural Electric Company and continued to work there for 17 years. He also worked for the municipal utilities in Coggon, Hopkinton, Afton, and Clarinda, Iowa. Vernon started his own business of testing water and sewer systems for many towns before his retirement. In later years, he traveled around the country delivering trailers.

Vernon enjoyed square dancing and was a square dance caller for many years. He also enjoyed hunting, fishing, trap shooting, and camping. Vernon was a Mason for 40 years, Instruction Lodge #275, Corning; member of the Fraternal Order of the Eagles in Red Oak; and former member and former president of the Corning Gun Club.

Preceding Vernon in death were his parents; three brothers, Carl Lawrence, Paul Lawrence, and Wesley Lawrence; and one sister who died at birth, Doris Lawrence.

Survivors include his wife, Carmelita; son, Dennis Lawrence of Monroe, Iowa; daughter, Dee (husband John) Diggs of Glenwood, Iowa; three grandchildren, Felicia, Victoria, and Shaun Diggs; one great-granddaughter, Lily; brother, Charlie Lawrence of Corning; sisters-in-law, Iva Lawrence of Corning and Mary Lawrence-Jones of Missouri.

Ferrol Lancelot Lee.

Ferrol Lancelot Lee, son of Ben and Bertha Means Lee, was born near Mount Etna, in Adams County, Iowa, Oct. 28, 1903, and departed this life Dec. 3, 1986, at his home in Seymour, Iowa, at the age of 83 years.

He married Evelyn Hiatt at Gettysburg, S.D., Jan. 6, 1928.

Survivors include one daughter, Marcella Taylor and husband Gene; three grandsons, Jack and wife Jean, Kurt and wife Christine and Bart; one great-grandson, Justin, all living in or near Tunnel City, Wisc.; a brother, Virgil Lee and wife Ruby of Carbon, Iowa; two sisters, Mary Stump of Las Cruces, N. Mexico and Twylla Roberts and husband Eldon and a sister-in-law, Gladys Lee of Corning.

Preceding him in death were his wife, Evelyn, who died in June 1986; a brother, Spray who died in 1962; a sister, Hazel Ruchman who died in 1981 and an adopted daughter, Phyllis who died at the age of 13 in 1952.

Ferrol was an electrician in California during World War II and later worked at the same trade in Minnesota and Iowa.

Funeral services were held in Seymour Dec. 5 and burial was also in Seymour.

GLADYS LUCILLE LEE

Gladys Lucille Lee, daughter of Joseph and Nellie (Cooper) Carrigan, was born March 30, 1907 near Carl, Iowa and entered into rest October 19, 1994 at Mercy Hospital, Corning, Iowa at the age of 87 years, 6 months and 9 days.

She lived in this vicinity all of her life, attending rural school and helping her mother on the farm after her father's tragic death when she was only eleven years old. She graduated from Corning High School in the normal training program and taught country school until her marriage.

On June 13, 1926 Gladys was united in marriage with Harold Spray Lee. Two children were born to bless this union. They began farming during the drought and depression of the 1930's and persevered during some hard, difficult times, but never lost their love for the land.

While farming, they were active members of St. Timothy Catholic Church at Reno, Iowa, members of the Farm Bureau, and were both 4-H leaders for years. Her mother made her home with them until her death on December 12, 1962, and tragically, her husband Spray died just two weeks later on December 25, 1962, suffering a heart attack.

Gladys moved into Corning and bought a house at 1404 West Street. She worked as a nurse's aide at Colonial Manor for nine years and was active with the Congregate Meals. In 1982 she moved to her apartment at Westgate. After moving to Corning, she was an active member of St. Patrick Catholic Church and Altar Society; she enjoyed playing cards, writing plays as a hobby, and especially loved spending time with her grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband Spray, and her parents.

Gladys is survived by her son James Lee of Corning, Iowa, and her daughter Linda (husband Lynn) Schafroth, also of Corning; seven grandchildren; thirteen great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandchild; four step-great-grandchildren; and two step-great-great-grandchildren; other relatives and many friends.

Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted.

Jeanne K. Leipert October 26, 1995

Jeanne Kathleen Leipert was born May 17, 1950, in Sioux City, Iowa, and passed away at Corning, Iowa, Oct. 22, 1995, at the home of her mother, where she has made her home for the past three years.

Her childhood was spent in Corning. She attended the Corning schools and graduated from Corning High School in 1968.

She and Lana Brown went to Kansas City where they worked for awhile and she attended school in Arkansas for a semester.

After her father, Glen, died in 1971 she attended school in Iowa City but returned to Kansas City where she obtained her nursing degree.

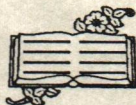

Jeanne was married May 17, 1975, to Jack Edwin Butler, but after thirteen years they were divorced.

About seven years ago she moved to Omaha, but because of ill health, she was unable to work and it was at that time she moved back to Corning to stay with her mother.

She loved her cats, the TV, swimming in the summer, and re-ringing her clothes in her room.

Safely Home

I am home in Heaven, dear ones;

Oh, so happy and so bright!

There is perfect joy and beauty

In this everlasting light.

All the pain and grief is over,

Every restless tossing passed;

I am now at peace forever,

Safely home in Heaven at last.

Did you wonder I so calmly

Trod the valley of the shade?

Oh! but Jesus' love illuminated

Every dark and fearful glade.

And He came Himself to meet me

In that way so hard to tread;

And with Jesus' arm to lean on,

Could I have one doubt or dread?

Then you must not grieve so sorely,

For I love you dearly still:

Try to look beyond earth's shadows,

Pray to trust our Father's Will.

There is work still waiting for you,

So you must not idly stand;

Do it now, while life remaineth-

You shall rest in Jesus' land.

When that work is all completed,

He will gently call you Home;

Oh, the rapture of that meeting,

Oh, the joy to see you come!

OF LOVE AND JOY...

Mary Margaret Lenz, daughter of Anna Isabel (Curry) and Lewis Bernard Mack, was born on November 19, 1924, in Adams County, Corning, Iowa. Mary passed away on Wednesday, March 11, 2009 at the Hospice House in Smithfield, Pennsylvania at the age of eighty-four years, three months and twenty-two days.

Mary graduated from Corning High School in 1942, Ottumwa Heights College in 1944, and received her Bachelor of Science degree from University of Nebraska at Omaha in 1970. One of Mary's fondest school memories was marching as a member of the high school band which won first place in national competition.

On December 30, 1950, Mary was united in marriage to John Francis Lenz at St. Patrick's Catholic Church in Corning and two children were born to bless this union, Mary Bernadette and Charles John.

Mary worked in the family hardware stores, Curry and Mack and later Mack Hardware and Appliance. Later, she operated Lenz Refinish and Repair. Her career as an educator, in the Corning School District, began in 1946. In 1972, Mary became the junior-senior high school librarian for eighteen years, retiring in 1990.

Mary was always active and involved in her communities. She was Girl Scout leader and Junior Catholic Daughter sponsor. She was a member of American Association of University Women, Catholic Daughters of America, Adams County Departmental Clubs, Happy Hollow Country Club Women's Board, Centennial Board, Centennial Pageant, Icarian Players, St. Patrick's Church and Alter Society. She served as a board member of Alegent-Mercy Health System, St. Matthew's Catholic Church and Monroe County Historical Association in Pennsylvania.

Survivors include her husband, John Lenz of East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania; daughter, Mary Bernadette (husband, Christopher B.) Lynch; grandchildren: Joseph Francis, Elizabeth Rose and Andrew John Lynch, all of East Stroudsburg, Pennsylvania; brother, Lewis Francis Mack of Corning, Iowa; sisters: Joan Haley Mack Gebhardt of Mission, Texas, Mary Jo Lenz (husband, Dr. Aurel) Galipeau of Lakewood, California and Audrey Bannick Lenz Harmening of Lakefield, Minnesota; nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Mary was preceded in death by her parents; mother-in-law and father-in-law, Elizabeth Wagner and Charles John Lenz; son, Charles John Lenz; brothers: Robert John Mack, Raphael Henry Paul Mack, and infant brother Joseph William Mack; sisters and brothers-in-law: Patricia Johns Mack, Phyllis Watts Mack, Alberta Lenz Banck, Marcella Lenz Mauch, Mildred Lenz Homan, Charles G. Lenz, Elmer Lenz, Frank Banck, Leonard Mauch and Loyal Homan.

THE PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS

*"Lord make me an instrument of Thy peace; where there is hatred,
let me sow love; where there is doubt, faith;
where there is despair, hope;
where there is darkness, light;
and where there is sadness, joy"*

*"O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; to be understood, as to understand;
to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, and it is in pardoning, that we are pardoned and it is in dying,
that we are born to eternal life."*

ARTHUR DEAN LEONARD, the son of Harry and Hazel Gillet Leonard, was born on March 6, 1916 in Adams County, Iowa; and he entered into rest at his home in Corning, Iowa on December 29, 1982 at the age of 66 years, 9 months and 23 days.

He attended grade school at Fairview in rural Taylor County, and graduated from the Corning High School in 1933. Following his graduation he was buttermaker at the Corning Creamery until November of 1942 when he was called into military service in World War II, serving three years in the Navy. After his discharge from the service, he worked five years as a buttermaker at Kimbalton, Iowa. In 1950 he returned to Adams County where he engaged in farming until moving into Corning in 1978. He continued his interest in agriculture by working with Dr. M. R. Beemer for three years.

On September 28, 1940 he was united in marriage with Murle Raimer at Lenox, Iowa.

Dean was preceded in death by his parents; a sister, Dorothy; and an infant brother.

Those surviving to honor his memory are his wife Murle of Corning; his children: Victor Leonard & wife Jan of San Mateo, Calif.; Michel Caniglia & husband Joe of Omaha, Neb.; Steve Leonard & wife Ann of Templeton, Iowa; Ann Finn & husband Tim of Longmont, Colo.; Jane Kampsnider & husband Dave of Littleton, Colo.; Tim Leonard of Longmont, Colo.; Mary Leonard-Tiehen & husband Mike of Omaha, Neb.; and Jeff Leonard at home. Also surviving are a brother, Drexel & wife Jean of Longmont, Colo.; neices and nephews of whom he was very fond; other relatives and many friends.

Dean will be remembered as a kind and loving husband and father. His family and grandchildren were a source of pleasure and great pride to him. At the present time, he was a member of the Adams County Board of Health, the Southwest Iowa Sheltered Workshop; and was actively involved in his parish and community affairs.

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me,
I took His Hand when I heard him call ~
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work or to play
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that place at the close of day.
If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Ah, yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with the times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I've savored much;
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief;
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me ~
God wanted me now ~ He Set Me Free!*

Delman Wayne Leonard
February 4, 1922 - August 26, 2003

Delman Wayne Leonard was born February 4, 1922, in northern Taylor County, Iowa on the family farm. He was the son of Raymond Charles Leonard and Claudine Shuler Leonard. Delman attended Holt Center Grade School and two years of high school in Corning. He quit high school to work at Hogan & Hinck's Feed Mill in Corning for three years. On February 4, 1942, he was united in marriage to Claudine Bissell in Rockport, Missouri. To this union five loving children were born.

The family lived on a 160-acre farm in Holt Township until 1955 when they moved to Long Beach, California. Delman worked two years plating car bumpers and then went to work for Globe Electronics. He later worked as a Supervisor at Lockheed Electronics for four years. Delman then went into business for himself servicing swimming pools until his retirement in 1985. In 1988, Delman and Claudine returned to the Bedford area where he enjoyed helping his brother, Harold, on the family farm. He loved the outdoors spending time hunting and fishing. For many years, he traveled to Colorado to hunt deer and elk. Delman and Claudine enjoyed traveling in their motor home. He was a people person taking special pride in his family, even after retiring to Bedford, they returned to California, during the winter months, to be with family.

Left to cherish Delman's memory are his loving wife Claudine of Bedford; four children, Janet Villaseñor and husband Gil of Lomita, California; Virginia Young and husband Al of Chandler, Arizona; Melvyn Leonard and wife Georgianna of Los Alamitos, California; Eugene Leonard of Gardena, California; a brother, Harold Leonard and wife Lillian of Corning, Iowa; twelve grandchildren, Kim, Scotty and Chuck Villaseñor; Lisa Logston, Lynn Cartwright; Stephanie Leonard; Michael, Dustin, Amber and Tanya Leonard; Brandi Petersen; Wayne Leonard; nine great-grandchildren; many nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

Preceding Delman in death are his parents Ray and Claudine; a son Dennis Leonard in 1997; and a grandson, Scott.

EDITH L. LITTLE

Edith Lucille Little was born on October 23, 1919 to George R. and Belle Renshaw Little at the family farm southeast of Brooks, Iowa and passed away on September 25, 1997 at the Corning Nursing and Rehab Center, Corning, Iowa at the age of 77 years 11 months and 2 days.

She attended Jasper #6 rural school and then moved to Brooks with her parents.

She worked in the Ivan Heaton home as a nanny and housekeeper, and was known for her chocolate chip cookies as the world's best.

After caring for her mother in her final illness, Edith and her father moved to Corning where she lived until failing health forced her to give up her independent life style and move to Country Haven.

Later she moved to the Corning Nursing and Rehab Center where she earned the love and hearts of her caregivers.

Edith always had and loved pets. She also had many friends with whom she corresponded as long as she was able. She never missed a birthday or special holiday.

She was preceded in death by her parents; a brother, Clarence Little, and a sister, Edna Little.

Survivors include several cousins and many friends.

She will be fondly remembered and greatly missed.

Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted.

Nurse's Prayer

*As I care for my patients today
Be there with me, Oh Lord, I pray.
Make my words kind-it means so much.
And in my hands place your healing touch.
Let your love shine through all that I do,
So those in need may hear and feel you.*

*I was a caring Nurse to all.
I loved patients, friends, family and all.*

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley
of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:*

for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

*thou anointest my head with oil:
my cup runneth over.*

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life;

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS

*I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.*

*And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.*

*And so, beside the silent sea,
I wait the muffled oar,
No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.*

*I know not where His islands lift
Their froned palms in air,
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care*

Ernest Love APRIL 4, 1991

Ernest McKinley Love, 90, son of Dolphus Alexander and Cora Ellen Bayman Love, was born Dec. 16, 1900, near Bridgewater and died March 26, 1991, at Colonial Manor Care Center in Corning.

He attended school in Adair County and in 1920 began working for his brother Harry (Sam) in his poultry business in Bridgewater which he did for nine years.

On June 10, 1925, he married Ruth Mae Cornett at Massena. One daughter was born to this union. In 1929, the family moved to Corning where they owned and operated the Love Produce for 21 years driving to farms to purchase poultry, eggs and cream. After selling the business, he worked for nearly eight years as manager of the Farmers Exchange and then worked 17 years as a custodian at the Corning Community Schools until retiring in 1975.

He was a member of the United Methodist Church and Masonic Lodge #275, A.F. & A.M. of Corning.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife; one brother; one sister; and a great-grandson, Shawn.

He is survived by his daughter Gloria Paul of Corning; three grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

Services were held March 29 at the United Methodist Church in Corning with the Rev. Don Strickler officiating. Masonic rites were administered by Instruction Lodge #275 A.F. & A.M. Casket bearers were Brett and Nicholas Cox, Larry Love, Gary and Steve Firch, Michael Paul, Donald Brugamy, and Larry, Scott, Kelly and Chris Morrison. Honorary bearers were Paul Flowers and Marvin Steffen.

Burial was in Garner Cemetery at Bridgewater with Coen Beaty Funeral Home in charge of the arrangements.

MARY A. LOVELY

Mary Agnes Lovely, daughter of John Steven and Anna Marie (Morris) Swift was born November 24, 1905 in Carl Township, Adams County, Iowa and entered into rest March 11, 1997 at the Corning Nursing and Rehab Center, Corning, Iowa at the age of 91 years, 3 months and 17 days.

She attended country school near Orient through 8th grade, and her freshman year of high school at St. Joseph Academy in Ottumwa, Iowa. She returned to Orient and completed high school there, graduating in 1925. She received a teacher's certificate from Iowa State Teachers College at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, and she taught in rural schools in Madison, Adair and Adams Counties for nine years before her marriage.

On June 18, 1934, Mary was united in marriage with Donald G. Lovely in the Assumption Church at Churchville, Iowa. Four children were born to this union. They first farmed east of Greenfield and later on a farm three miles southeast of Corning. In 1949 they moved to a farm 8½ miles north of Corning. In 1973 they moved to an acreage near Carbon, Iowa, and in 1984 moved to Corning. Mary and Don were privileged to celebrate 62 years of marriage.

When her youngest child was in 6th grade, Mary returned to teaching and taught in rural Adams County schools for twelve years.

She was an active member of St. Patrick Catholic Church and Altar Society and enjoyed working at the Dollar Shop. She also loved to read.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her daughter, Sharon in 1984; two brothers, Cyril Swift and John Swift; and three sisters, Vineta McLaughlin, Marcella Swift and Catherine Swift.

Mary is survived by her husband, Donald of Corning, Iowa; her children, Donald (wife Lotti) of Bloomington, Minnesota, John (wife Jan) of Omaha, Nebraska, and Kathi (husband Robert) Krause of South Sioux City, Nebraska; a son-in-law, Jim Merritt of River Falls, Wisconsin; ten grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law, Mary Swift of Norwalk, Iowa; a brother-in-law, Ed McLaughlin of Belmond, Iowa; nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted.

LESLIE C. LOVIG

Leslie Curtis Lovig, the son of Oscar and Tilda Larson Lovig, was born on September 14, 1911 at Strand, Iowa; and passed away at the St. Joseph's Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska on November 1, 1981 at the age of 70 years, 1 month and 17 days.

He was baptized and confirmed in the Strand Lutheran Church where he was a member for many years. He later transferred to the Redeemer Lutheran Church in Corning and was a devout and faithful member until his death.

On August 11, 1940 he was united in marriage with Velma Schafer in a yard wedding at the bride's parents home near Lincoln Center. Two sons were born to bless this union. They farmed in the Strand and Lincoln Center vicinity as long as his health permitted and in January of 1977 Leslie and Velma moved into Corning.

Leslie was preceded in death by his parents and a brother Verlyn. Also by Velma's parents George & Nellie Schafer; brothers-in-law: Lester Lemon, Ornal & Delmont Schafer and a sister-in-law Helena Schafer.

Those surviving to honor his memory are his wife Velma of Corning; sons: Monte and wife Lori and their children Tim and Dawn of Minnetonka, Minnesota; and Dean and wife Kathy and their son Ryan of Paola, Kansas. Also surviving are two brothers: Olin Lovig and Delmar Lovig and his wife Bernice of Strand and a sister, Glenna Lovig Spiering and her husband Dwayne of Omaha, Nebraska.

Other survivors are Velma's sisters: Lucille Lemon of Farmington, Michigan; Lola Vogel & husband Glen of Lenox, Iowa; Lenora Karstensen and husband Norman of Corning; and brothers: Seymour and Boyd Schafer & wife Wilma of Corning; and sister-in-law Ruth Schafer of Red Oak, Iowa; and by many nieces and nephews. Leslie's greatest concern was his willingness to help others and he will be missed by those who knew and loved him.

CRESTON NEWS ADVERTISER

CORNING — Services for Velma Isabelle Lovig, 78, of Bedford, formerly of Corning, were 1:30 p.m. Saturday, March 17, at the Redeemer Lutheran Church, Corning.

The Rev. Michael Harman officiated the service. Music was provided by Lois Jordening, organist and Dale Jackson, vocalist. Burial was in the Lincoln Cemetery Cemetery, Corning, with the Coen-Beaty Funeral Home in Corning in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Ed, Ron, John and Glenn Schafer, Terry Evans and Kevin Lawrence.

Mrs. Lovig was born Nov. 28, 1911, at Mount Etna to George and Nellie (Nelson) Schafer. She died March 14, 1990, at Mercy Hospital, Corning. She married Leslie Curtis Lovig Aug. 11, 1940, at the home of her parents near Lincoln Center. They farmed in the Strand and Lincoln Center vicinity until moving to Corning in January 1977.

Survivors include two sons, Monte (wife Lori) of Minnetonka, Minn., and Dean (wife Kathy) Lovig of Paola, Kan.; four grandchildren; three sisters, Lucile Lemon of South Lyons, Mich., Lola (Mrs. Glen) Vogel of Lenox, and Lenora (Mrs. Norman) Karstensen of Corning; two brothers, Boyd (wife Wilma) and Seymour Schafer of Corning; two brothers-in-law, Delmar (wife Bernice) and Olin Lovig of Strand; and a sister-in-law, Glenna and husband Dwayne of Omaha, Neb.

She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, two brothers, Ornal and Delmont Schafer; a brother-in-law, Lester Lemon; and two sisters-in-law, Helena and Ruth Schafer.

ELDON LOWTHER

Eldon Lowther, son of Grover and Etta (Kessler) Lowther, was born August 23, 1916 near Carl, Iowa in Adams County. He entered into rest at Mercy Hospital in Corning on May 6, 1995 at the age of 78 years, 8 months and 13 days.

He was united in marriage June 5, 1940 to Maxine E. Slezak at Leon, Iowa. Next month would have been their 55th wedding anniversary.

All of his life was spent in Adams County with most of the last 55 years in Corning. The first 15 years of marriage, Eldon was a truck driver; first hauling livestock and miscellaneous. After purchasing a truck of his own, he hauled lime and crushed rock until he suffered a heart attack in 1955. In 1958, he began working as weighmaster for the Missouri Valley Limestone Company's rock quarry in Corning. In October 1963, Schildberg Construction Company, Inc. purchased the Corning Quarry and Eldon continued working for them until retiring in April of 1979. His one wish was that he could have driven some of the big trucks that are on the road today, as he was always a truck driver at heart.

As a hobby, Eldon enjoyed riding horses and for several years was a member of the Corning Saddle Club. He was also a member of the Corning United Methodist Church.

Eldon was preceded in death by his parents; Maxine's parents; a brother, Robert; a sister-in-law, Martha Lowther and brother-in-law, Joe Wilson.

Survivors who mourn his passing are his wife, Maxine of Corning; his brother, Max Lowther of Buffalo, Wyoming; a sister-in-law, Claudine Wilson of St. Joseph, Missouri; two nephews, Richard and Steve Lowther; several cousins and a host of friends. Eldon is also survived by the families of Carol and Wilson Willhelm of Villisca, who have meant so much to him for so many years. They include: Valeria, Gary, Ciara and Aurilla Goldsmith of Corning; Rhonda, Scott and Ayla Wade of St. Joseph, Missouri; Andy, Kim, Jennifer and Jamie Lundquist of Brooks, Iowa.

Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me
To be a happy one
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles when life is done
I'd like to leave an echo
Whispering softly down the ways
Of happy times and laughing times
And bright and sunny days
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
When life is done*

Maxine E. Lowther

September 26, 1915 – January 24, 2003

Maxine Elizabeth (Slezak) Lowther, the daughter of Ed and Theresa (Fickel) Slezak, was born September 26, 1915 in Carl Township, Adams County, Iowa. Maxine entered into Eternal Rest, Friday, January 24, 2003 at the Corning Nursing & Rehabilitation Center at the age of eighty-seven years, three months and twenty-nine days.

Maxine attended the Carl Elementary School. She then graduated from Corning High School with the class of 1934. She took a normal course and taught school in Carl for six years. On June 5, 1940 Maxine and Eldon Lowther were united in marriage in Leon, Iowa. Since their marriage Maxine has lived in Corning, except for one and a half years when they lived in Prescott.

Following her marriage Maxine worked for Bradley's Dime Store, Triple A Office, Corning Oil Company and ten years for the Farmer's Cooperative Creamery.

Maxine joined the Carl Methodist Church where she taught Primary Sunday School class and was the pianist. She later transferred her membership to the Corning United Methodist Church where she has been an active member of the Wesleyan Service Guild and UMW, holding district and local offices. She was a member of the Corning Departments Club and has been in Civic, Music, Home and Garden Departments. Maxine was also a member of the Rose Anne's. She was one the first volunteers to help at the Senior Citizen Congregate Meal Site and helped as long as she was able.

Preceding Maxine in death were her parents; Husband, Eldon; and infant brother and brother-in-law, Joe Wilson.

Maxine is survived by her sister; Claudine Wilson of St. Joseph, Missouri; as well as her adopted family; Carol and Wilson Wilhelm of Villisca, Iowa and their families who have meant so much to her through the years. They are Valeria, Gary, Ciara and Aurilla Goldsmith of Corning; Rhonda, Scott, Ayla and Rhea Wade of Savanna, Missouri; Andrew, Kim, Jennifer, and Jamie Lundquist of Corning, Iowa; brother-in-law, Max Lowther of Buffalo, Wyoming, as well as several cousins, close friends and a wonderful nursing home family that she loved so much.

The Twenty Third Psalm

*THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES:
HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: HE LEADETH ME IN THE
PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE..
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF
THE SHADOW OF DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVIL:
FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME. THOU PREPAREST A TABLE
BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL; MY CUP
RUNNETH OVER.. SURELY GOODNESS AND
MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS
OF MY LIFE: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE

Where earthly griefs are over,
Where pain shall be no more,
To Peace past understanding
God has opened wide the door.*

The Twenty-Third Psalm

*THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT.
HE MAKETH ME TO LIE DOWN IN GREEN PASTURES:
HE LEADETH ME BESIDE THE STILL WATERS.
HE RESTORETH MY SOUL: HE LEADETH ME IN THE
PATHS OF RIGHTEOUSNESS FOR HIS NAME'S SAKE..
YEA, THOUGH I WALK THROUGH THE VALLEY OF
THE SHADOW OF DEATH, I WILL FEAR NO EVIL:
FOR THOU ART WITH ME; THY ROD AND THY STAFF
THEY COMFORT ME. THOU PREPAREST A TABLE
BEFORE ME IN THE PRESENCE OF MINE ENEMIES:
THOU ANOINTEST MY HEAD WITH OIL; MY CUP
RUNNETH OVER.. SURELY GOODNESS AND
MERCY SHALL FOLLOW ME ALL THE DAYS
OF MY LIFE: AND I WILL DWELL IN THE
HOUSE OF THE LORD FOR EVER.....*

OSCAR WILLIAM LYNAM

Oscar W. Lynam, son of Irish and German parents, James Francis Lynam and Amelia Schaub, was born March 9, 1911 at Sterling, Oklahoma and entered into rest April 23, 1995 at Mercy Hospital, Corning, Iowa at the age of 84 years, 1 month and 14 days.

He moved with his family to Southwest Iowa in 1914 where they farmed numerous years in the Lenox area. He attended rural school and High School in Lenox. On September 9, 1940 Oscar was united in marriage with Mary Cullen in the St. Timothy (Reno) Catholic Church near Cumberland, Iowa. They began farming near Corning, and lived at the same farm five miles Southeast of Corning from 1943 to 1982. Two sons were born to this union, Edward and Gerald. The boys helped Oscar in his farming operation for many years. Oscar and Mary retired to their present home in Corning in 1982.

Oscar spent his entire life farming, and acquired many skills such as electrical wiring, mechanics and carpentry. He built several buildings and spent hours maintaining and repairing his own farm machinery. After retiring, he continued his love of growing things by maintaining a large garden at the Earl & Floy James and Howard & Eugene Van Pelt farm on the edge of Corning.

Oscar greatly enjoyed his family and especially took an interest in young people trying to get started and through the difficult adolescent years. He was forgiving of many of their transgressions. He was a member of St. Patrick Catholic Church and very active, serving many years as an usher, and helping to deliver "Meals on Wheels". His life centered much more on people than on material goods.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one infant brother; two brothers, Paul & Robert; and two brothers-in-law.

Oscar is survived by his wife Mary of Corning; two sons, Edward and friend Pat Allison of Des Moines, Iowa and Gerald and wife Elaine of Afton, Iowa; two grandchildren and two great-grandchildren; two sisters, Margaret Jacobs of Rapid City, South Dakota and Mary Sullivan of Corning; a sister-in-law, Monica Lynam of Lenox; several nieces, nephews, other relatives and a host of friends.

Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted.

Twenty-third Psalm

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over: Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

FINAL RESTING PLACE

Calvary Cemetery

Lynch, Peter Frances

Corning friends were greatly surprised to learn of the death of Pete Lynch of Jasper township which occurred Monday at a hospital at Creston where he had gone for treatment. It was known that he had been ailing for about six weeks but the outcome was unexpected. The body was brought to Corning where the funeral was held Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock at St. Patrick's Catholic church, the services being conducted by the pastor, Rev. Father Richard Dollard and Rev. Father Dennis Murphy of Creston. Interment was made in Calvary cemetery, beside his parents, James S. Lynch, sr., who died October 24, 1893, and Ellen Lynch who died December 6, 1911, also a brother Matthias who died in 1897 at the age of 25 years. A sister, Mrs. Mary McDonald died January 26, 1916, at Ponca City, Okla. Peter Frances Lynch was born in Jackson county, Iowa, September 4, 1872, and was aged 43 years, 10 months and 21 days. When a lad of nine years he, with his parents, came to the home farm where he has since lived, with the exception of the year 1893, when he was fireman on the C., B. & Q. road. He leaves two brothers, James S., jr., on the home farm and Joe of Corning, and three sisters, Mrs. Maggie Sullivan of Corning, Mrs. Alice Bentley of Mercer township, and Miss Helena at home. Friends extend sympathy to the sorrowing brothers and sisters.

MARY ANN LYONS

Mary Ann Lyons, daughter of Walter Carl and Florence Annis (Fillman) Lyons was born July 13, 1925 at Corning, Iowa and entered into rest January 21, 2000 at Alegent Health Mercy Hospital in Corning, Iowa at the age of 74 years, 6 months and 8 days.

She attended grade and high school in Corning, Iowa graduating with the class of 1943. She attended two years at Ottumwa Heights Jr. College graduating in 1945.

She worked for Dr. Dale Ireland the summer of 1945, then moved to Greenfield, Iowa and worked six years for the Rural Electrification Administration. In 1951 she returned to Corning and worked for 25 years at the Rosary Hospital in the Admissions and Billing Office and later as Accountant. In 1976 she began working for Dr. C. L. Bain and was there until 1984 when she moved into the apartment at the Gauthier Funeral Home, now Coen-Beaty and has lived and worked there ever since.

She received a pony for her 5th birthday and has been an avid horse enthusiast all her life. She enjoyed roller-skating, badminton, bowling and swimming and photography was her favorite hobby.

Mary loved music and began playing in school bands in 6th grade when Corning's first bands were organized by Carol Morgan and also played in the Corning Municipal Band under the direction of Homer Snodgrass as long it was active..

She was a member of St. Patrick Catholic Church of Corning from baptism to burial: St. Patrick Altar Society; Jr. Catholic Daughters of America and Sr. Catholic Daughters Court Patricia #355; and the Business & Professional Women for many years. Her two favorite clubs were the famous (in those days) "4 MARYS" with Mary Gauthier, Mary Mack, Mary Hogan and Mary Lyons; and the "KDAY'S OF Magellan" the CCD class she taught at St. Patrick's for four years.

She was preceded in death by her parents, three brothers, William (Bill), and the twins, Charles and James, and a sister-in-law, Betty (Mrs. James) Lyons.

Mary is survived by four nieces and nephews; Darwin and wife Claudia Lyons, Francis and wife Diane Lyons, Jane (Lyons) and husband Richard Tarkington and Margaret (Lyons) Hall; nine great nieces and nephews, 12 great-great nieces and nephews; two sisters-in-law; Verda (Mrs. Bill) Lyons of Loveland, Colorado and Jean (Mrs. Charles) Lyons of San Diego, California and several cousins.
