ROLAND-JOHNSON-RITCHIE FUNERAL HOME

Corning, Iowa

Debra Lynn Ramsey was born August 9, 1955 in Corning, Iowa the daughter of Daryl Eugene Rodman and Lois Marie Bennett Rodman. She grew up in Omaha, graduating from North High School in 1973. Deb loved all of God's creatures, and shared the love and friendship of many pets over the years. On her walks home from school, she would often start following a bird or butterfly, forgetting she was supposed to be on her way home. On December 31, 1988 she was united in marriage to Reldon C. Ramsey at their home in Corning. To this loving marriage a daughter Sara was born. Sara was the joy in Deb and Reldon's life. As a good friend put it, "she's the best thing you've done together". Deb already knew what her daughter's name would be before she met Reldon.

Deb and Reldon owned and operated Main Street Floral, (later Main Street Memories) in Corning for many years. She enjoyed meeting the public and had also worked in public relations. Deb was formerly involved with the Corning Friends of the Library and the Corning SHARE Program. She was fiercely competitive at times, especially when playing shuffleboard. The team of Deb and her friend Mike were Omaha City Champions one year. She enjoyed all kinds of music, and in her younger years liked singing country music. When Deb returned to the Corning area, she loved spending time with family and friends, and was an avid Adams County Speedway Fan. She collected cookbooks and was always happy to find a new community or church cookbook. Deb loved to be outdoors – fishing with her Aunt Iva and Uncle Carl, taking drives through the countryside, and strolling through beautiful flower gardens. Quilts were another of Deb's loves, she enjoyed watching quilting shows and reading quilting magazines. The magazines gave her a great deal of pleasure over the last several months. She dreamed of one day making a quilt of her own. Always willing to lend a hand, Deb could be counted on to help someone in a time of need.

In 1998 Deb was diagnosed with breast cancer, a battle she valiantly fought to the end. After completing chemotherapy and radiation in 1999, the family vacationed in Colorado, something they would continue to do the following two years. These trips were very important to Deb and many great memories were made during those summer days. Some of her favorite memories came from seeing a magical place called the Butterfly Pavilion where she was able to hold "Rosie" a tarantula spider. During their last visit to the Rainforest Area a butterfly (or 'flutterby' as Deb referred to them) landed on Deb's arm, her eyes were filled with delight as you could see the joy this gave her. Another was spending the night in a cabin, singing campfire songs and making smores. It was the highlight of this summer's vacation for her.

On September 28, 2001, Deb was baptized in the United Methodist Church in Corning. And that day, she and Reldon also renewed their marriage vows. This was a very special time in their lives. Rekindling the love they first had and being able to share their special day with their many friends and family. As Deb's illness progressed she would often have what she called "Gypsy Dreams". In her dreams, she and Reldon would make things to sell along the road as they traveled west to see their friend Mary and her family in Denver. The family never tired of hearing of the adventures they had in these dreams.

Deb is survived by her husband Reldon Ramsey and daughter Sara of Corning; parents, Daryl and Lois Rodman of Lenox; a brother, David Rodman and wife Cindy of Omaha, Nebraska; mother-in-law, Rowena Ramsey of Corning; brother-in-law, Randy Ramsey and wife Delores of Corning; two nephews, Matthew and Nathan Ramsey of Corning; a niece, Amber Ramsey of Corning; four aunts, Joan Parker of Omaha; Delores Purdum of Creston; Ruth Schafer and husband Cliff of Corning; and Iva Lawrence of Corning; three uncles, Ivan Bennett and wife Jane of Lenox; Jack Rodman and wife Fern of Omaha; and Tom Rodman and wife Jenice; along with a community of friends.

Preceding Deb in death were her grandparents, Bert and Alta Rodman and Don and Bernice Bennett; father-in-law, Russell Ramsey; and grandmother-in-law, Zepha Case.

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower,
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf,
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down today,
Nothing gold can stay.

Gail Hillard Reeve was born August 19, 1918, in the Kent area, the son of Joab Hayden Reeve and Nellie Kilgore Reeve. He grew up in the Lenox area where he attended rural school, with the last two years of school near Creston. After school, he worked for area farmers until he met Neva McKinney, who would later become his wife. You see, Neva was dating his cousin when they first met, two years later, in June of 1938, they started dating, and seven weeks later, they were married! To this loving union seven children were born, Gailard, Jerry, Joan, Darrell, Allen, Tena and Darla.

In 1941, G.H. went to work for the railroad in Creston as a fireman. He later became an engineer, a position he would hold for 35 1/2 years. During this time, he worked for the C.B. & Q. Railroad, the Burlington Railroad and later the Burlington Northern Railroad, retiring in 1978. G.H. and Neva moved from the farm into Lenox. G.H. loved the outdoors, especially hunting. He also worked as a mechanic one winter. G.H. was a people person, he always enjoyed sharing a good story. Every year he had a one-week vacation and the family often packed up, heading to Minnesota to go fishing. During their retirement, G.H. and Neva enjoyed traveling to Canada a few times. He also enjoyed attending the horse races in Omaha every now and then. In their younger years, he and Neva enjoyed attending the local dances in surrounding communities. G.H. had been a member of the United Methodist Church as a boy; he was a Mason at the Camby Lodge in Cromwell; a member of the Eagles Lodge in Creston and the Brotherhood of Railroad Engineers.

Preceding G.H. in death are his parents, Joab and Nellie; three brothers, Cleo, Artie and LeRoy Reeve; and four sisters, Nomi Scofield, Ethel Bayleff, Jenny Dalberg and Fern Hall.

The Lord is my shepherd:

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life: and I
will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

THE LEGEND OF
THE DOGWOOD TREE

AT THE TIME of the crucifixion, the dogwood was the size of the oak and other forest trees. So firm and strong was the tree that it was selected as the timber for the cross.

To be used for such a purpose caused the tree great distress and grief. Jesus observed this and in His gently pity for all sorrow and suffering, made the tree this promise,

"Never again shall the dogwood grow large enough to be used as a cross. Henceforth it shall be slender, bent and twisted. Its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross with the print of the nails in each petal. In the center of the flower will be the crown of thorns, and all who see it will remember that it was upon a dogwood tree I was crucified. Therefore this tree shall not be destroyed, but cherished as a reminder of my death upon the cross."

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me; Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

That Beautiful City

*I know of a land so wondrously fair
Where the saints of all ages have gone;
A place so amazingly perfect and pure,
Which God has prepared for His own.*

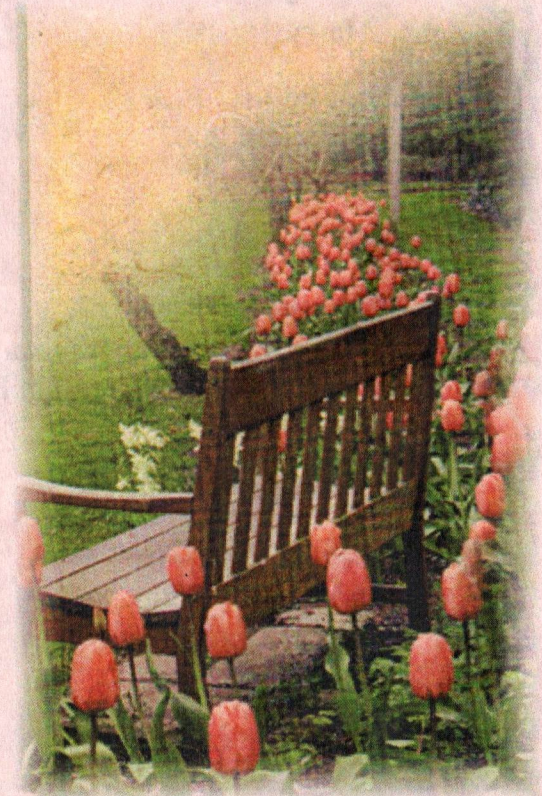

*In the mansions of love that await us
We shall never know sickness or pain.
And joy so complete will forever be ours
As together with Jesus we reign.*

*Though trials down here are heavy to bear,
Christ will never leave us alone.
His grace so sufficient will meet every need,
'Til we meet at His Heavenly throne.*

*Soon ~ very soon ~ we shall see Him!
Then with millions, we'll share all our love.
And rest will be sweet as we sit at His feet
In that beautiful city above.*

The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;
Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Footprints

One night a man had a dream. He dreamed he was walking along the beach with the Lord. Across the sky flashed scenes from his life. For each scene, he noticed two sets of footprints in the sand; one belonged to him, and the other to the Lord.

When the last scene of his life flashed before him, he looked back at the footprints in the sand. He noticed that many times along the path of his life there was only one set of footprints. He also noticed that it happened at the very lowest and saddest times in his life.

This really bothered him and he questioned the Lord about it. "Lord, you said that once I decided to follow you, you'd walk with me all the way. But I have noticed that during the most troublesome times in my life there is only one set of footprints. I don't understand why, when I needed you most, you would leave me."

The Lord replied, "My precious, precious child, I love you and I would never leave you. During your times of trial and suffering, when you see only one set of footprints, it was then that I carried you."

She loved life

Crissie (Pepper) Riegel

December 24, 1913 - August 26, 2009

Crissie Lucas was born four miles south of Corning, Iowa on Wednesday, December 24, 1913. She was the third daughter born to Isaac and Isabel Harrison Lucas. Crissie entered eternal rest on Wednesday, August 26, 2009 at the Bedford Nursing & Rehab Center in Bedford, Iowa at the age of ninety-five years, eight months and three days.

When Crissie was a small child, the family moved to a farm three miles west of Lenox where she attended all eight grades at the Grove # 2 school. When she was young, she worked at home and for a neighbor.

At noon, on September 19, 1934, Crissie was united in marriage to Howard G. Pepper. The Rev. Homer Caskey performed the ceremony in Omaha, Nebraska. The newlyweds took a two week honeymoon trip to Colorado and returned to live with Howard's parents near Bushville. A year and a half later, the young couple moved southwest of Brooks. Later, they lived in the Mercer Center Community for fourteen years. They joined the Mercer Center United Methodist Church in 1938, where Crissie was the oldest member. She enjoyed working with the ladies group. Howard and Crissie started their family after moving to Mercer. To this union three children were born: David Howard, October 14, 1939 who died at birth, Cathryn Ilene, born August 27, 1942 and Velda Jean, born December 12, 1946.

Crissie loved the farm and enjoyed working along side Howard and often she could be heard singing while milking the cows. She raised chickens and pet pigs. Once, while planting peas in her garden, one of her pigs followed eating the seeds as quickly as she planted them. She also enjoyed flying in their Piper Cub airplane.

On February 1952 the couple moved two miles south of Lenox. One of Crissie's favorite activities was bowling, where she was on leagues in Lenox and Corning. She also enjoyed working with her flowers

Due to Howard's health, they moved to Corning on December 22, 1973. He passed away in 1976.

Crissie enjoyed quilting with the Corning Methodist Quilters and has made a quilt for each of her grandchildren.

On June 17, 1978 she was united in marriage to John A. Riegel, he passed away in 1996. They enjoyed traveling to many places including Hawaii and Alaska. John and Crissie enjoyed their visits to the residents each Friday evening at the nursing home.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughters:

Jean Croy of Monett, Missouri;

A Little Step Away
To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away...
The soul, the everlasting life,
Has found a better day....

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:*

*for thou art with me; thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.*

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

*thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:*

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Cindy Ann Roberts began her life journey on May 23, 1978 at Clarkson Hospital in Omaha, Nebraska as the daughter of James Pete and Charlotte Ann Walvoord Roberts and entered into her eternal rest on June 26, 2004 at the Creighton Medical Center in Omaha, Nebraska at the age of twenty-six years, one month and three days, following a long tough battle with cancer.

Cindy was reared in rural Adams County. She attended the Corning Community School and graduated with the Class of 1997. Although hearing impaired Cindy compensated for her loss admirably. She was a member of band throughout high school and served as a drum major in her senior year. She was inducted into the National Honor Society in her junior year of high school. She served on the Governor's Deaf Service Commission of Iowa as a Junior Commissioner in 1996. She was a member of the Strand Evangelical Lutheran Church where she served as a Vacation Bible School teacher and coordinator.

After high school graduation, Cindy attended Northwest Missouri State University where she received a double major, a B.S. degree in Elementary Education and Learning Disabilities, graduating Cum Laude in 2001. While on the Maryville campus, Cindy was inducted into or participated in the following: Kappa Delta Pi Education Honor Society, Council for Exceptional Children, Delta Zeta Social Sorority, the NWMSU Marching Band Flag Corps, Phi Eta Sigma National Honor Fraternity, Alpha Chi Medallion for graduating in the top ten percent of her class, NWMSU President's List, NWMSU Academic Honor Roll, NWMSU Regents Scholarship, Delta Zeta Pearl, which required a G.P.A. of 3.0 or higher and the Deaf Services Commission of Iowa Leadership Award. She had also participated in Tae Kwon Do. Although her busy life pulled her in many directions, she found peace and solace in returning to the family farm and being among the animals, especially her cats. Cindy was a preschool special education teacher in the Corning Community Schools.

Cindy had planned to marry Wesley Wayne Root on July 3, 2004, and was looking forward to being a wife, a companion and a step-mother.

Those left to cherish Cindy's memory include her parents, James (Buzz) and Charlotte Roberts of rural Corning; her brother James (Skeeter) and Autumn Turner Roberts of Lenox; a nephew Lane Garret Roberts of Lenox; uncle and aunt Don and Carolyn Walvoord of Waterloo, Nebraska; her fiancé Wesley Wayne Root of Corning and Wesley's daughters, Erika, Andrea and Monika; many cousins and a host of friends.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents, John and Goldie Walvoord; paternal grandparents, James and Luella Roberts; aunt Adeline and uncle Edwin Elder.

May God grant comfort and strength to those who mourn Cindy's passing.

*I had a father who talked with me —
Allowed me the right to disagree,
To question — and always answered me,
As well as he could — and truthfully.
He talked of adventures; horrors of war;
Of life, its meaning; what love was for;
How each would always need to strive
To improve the world to keep it alive.
Stressed the duty we owe one another
To be aware each man is a brother
Words for laughter he also spoke
A silly song or a happy joke
Time runs along, some say I'm wise
That I look at life with seeing eyes.
My heart is happy, my mind is free,
I had a father who talked with me.*

HARRISON "BILL" ROBERTS

Harrison Hagen Roberts, son of Orlando Stephen and Elsie Elizabeth (Powell) Roberts, was born July 27, 1915 in Washington Twp., Adams County, IA. After suffering a massive stroke at his home February 4, he departed this life February 13, 1995 at Mercy Hospital, Corning, Iowa, at the age of 79 years, 6 months and 16 days.

He received his education in the public schools of Adams County and graduated from Corning High School in 1934. He attended Simpson College in Indianola in 1934 and 1935, then moved to Detroit, MI where he worked in the car factory in 1936 and 1937. He returned home and purchased the Bill Deere farm west of Mt. Etna in 1942 and moved onto the farm in 1948.

He was an avid sportsman and loved the outdoors. He hunted deer and elk with his brothers and friends for many years which was a very important part of his life.

Due to his health, he spent the fall of the year in the western states where he made many friends. He had a love of soil, of growing things and the works of nature. His farm was very special to him as he practiced soil conservation. After suffering a stroke eight years ago, through the loving care of his dear sister, Verda, he was able to remain on his farm where he was surrounded by the lifestyle that he appreciated so much.

Bill was baptized in the Methodist Church as a boy and always possessed a deep and abiding faith. He loved the family with a selfless devotion and always practiced the golden rule in his dealing with his fellowman.

Preceding him in death were his parents and two brothers, Howard and Evan.

He leaves to mourn his passing Eldon, Hylton and Jessie Krauth of Corning, Verda of Mt. Etna, Orlando of Tucson, AZ, Charlotte Galusha of Lincoln, NE, Lucille Krauth of Omaha, NE, Lewis of Lawrence, KS and a host of nieces and nephews, a very special niece and nephew, Greg and Kathy Krauth.

God saw the road was growing rough, the hills were hard to climb, he gently closed his loving eyes, and whispered peace be thine. His weary days of pain are through, his restless nights are past, his patient, worn out frame, has found sweet rest at last.

He also enjoyed deer hunting and attending birthday parties and family dinners. He helped with 4-H and everyone in the family loved ‘Grandpa’s sweet corn’.

A Little Step Away

To close the eye, to fall asleep,
To draw a labored breath,
To find release from daily cares
In what we know as death...

Is this the crowning of a life,
The aim or end thereof?
The totaled sum of consciousness,
The ripened fruit of love?

It cannot be, for works of God
Are wrought for nobler ends,
And those away continue on
In the hearts of kin and friends.

It cannot be, for they live on
A little step away.
The soul, in the everlasting life,
Has found a better day.....

The Twenty Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures;

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

*He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of
righteousness for His name's sake.*

*Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:*

for Thou art with me; Thy rod and

Thy staff they comfort me.

*Thou preparest a table before me in the
presence of mine enemies:*

*Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.*

*Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:*

and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the
paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the
shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
For thou art with me; thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me:
Thou preparest a table before me in the
presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

"Twenty-third Psalm"

THE Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want; He maketh me to lie down in green pastures. He leadeth me beside the still waters; He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff, they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; Thou anointest my head with oil, my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

*God saw the road was growing rough,
the hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed her loving eyes and whispered, "Peace be thine."
Her weary days of pain are through,
her restless nights are past,
her ever patient, worn-out frame,
has found sweet rest at last.
God wanted one more angel
among his shining band,
and so he bent with loving smile
and clasped our mother's hand.
Her thoughts were all so full of us.
She never could forget,
and so we think that where she is,
she watches o'er us yet;
she's waiting till we come to her,
anxious if we are late,
watching from Heaven's window and leaning from Heaven's gate.*

Celebrating a Life

Marjorie Russell

October 12, 1912 – June 23, 2004

Brought forth in praise...

Mom was born on October 12, 1912, the fourth of five daughters born to Elmer A. and Maude (Pedigo) Hoskinson. She was born in Prescott Township, Adams County Iowa, where her family farmed.

She received her education in a country school and Corning High School, graduating in 1930. On April 11, 1931, she and Clarence Russell, a young man who lived just a few miles away, were married at the Methodist Parsonage in Corning, Iowa. They lived on Dad's home place for 64 years together, and Mom remained on the farm after Dad passed away on July 20, 1995. We two boys, Richard and Jerry, were blessed to become a part of our parent's home.

Mom and Dad experienced good times and hard times in farming. They took great pride in their farmstead, spending many hours mowing their yard together. After retiring, they enjoyed traveling, visiting all state capitols in the continental U.S. Mom loved to walk the beaches of the East Coast and gather seashells. She and Dad enjoyed being members of the Adams Community Chamber of Commerce, attending the weekly coffees and hosting them in their home. Mom was honored to receive the first Lifetime Support Award presented by the Chamber.

Mom attended art classes sponsored by the Departmental Club, where she learned to paint with oil and watercolors.

She painted pictures of many historical buildings in Corning and all of the family's farmsteads. She had a large garden, including a huge strawberry patch and beautiful flower gardens. She loved to bake breads, rolls, and donuts, sharing them with everyone. After our Grandma Maude passed away, Mom kept her tradition of making patchwork quilts, sharing them with our families and many, many friends.

Her family was her life, caring for her mother and sisters and never missing a birthday. The card always arrived a couple of days early! She was so proud to have her family help her celebrate her 90th birthday.

Mom was preceded in death by Dad, her parents, her four sisters, Ennice, Edna, Myrtle, and Maxine; and her grandson, Paul.

She is survived by sons, Richard (Joan) of Robertsville, MO, and Jerry (Sharon) of Prescott, IA; grandchildren, Judy (Bill) Bray, LouAnn Veenker, Lois (Steve) Wood, Julie (Jerry) Reed of Lenox, IA, Barbie (Mark) Burnett, and Rob (Julie) Russell; great-grandchildren, Krista (Brad) Reedy, Brandon Bray, Michael and Mitchell Morley, Alex Veenker, Joey and Jacob Wood, Jason (Alicia) Reed, Jennifer Reed, Josh and Jordan Reed, JaLynne and Gracie Russell, and Keaton Lundquist; great-great-grandchildren, Christopher and Nicholas Morley and Parker Reed; many other relatives and friends.

loved...*
