Memorials are in his name.

"Twenty-third Psalm"

THE Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

God hath not promised
 Skies always blue,
Flower-strewn pathways
 All our lives through;
God hath not promised
 Sun without rain,
Joy without sorrow,
 Peace without pain.

But God hath promised
 Strength for the days,
Rest for the labor,
 Light for the way.
Grace for the trials,
 Help from above,
Unfailing sympathy
 Undying love

CARL TAYLOR

Carl Taylor, the son of Walter and Louisa Romang Taylor, was born on August 22, 1903 at Jamison, Iowa; and he entered into rest at the Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Corning, Iowa on October 5, 1982 at the age of 79 years, 1 month and 13 days. Carl had been a resident of the Colonial Manor since November 15, 1977 as his health had failed.

Carl had never married and had made his home in Brooks with his parents and sisters. He had worked as a truck driver, hauling rock from the quarries.

He was preceded in death by his mother in 1936; his father in 1952; and by two sisters: Mary Elizabeth Taylor on September 29, 1973 and Viola May Taylor on September 17, 1976. He is the last surviving member of his family..

During the last several years, Carl and his sisters were helped with things they could no longer do for themselves by Nancy and Ivan Dixon of Corning. Carl was very independent and it was only by Nancy's understanding and tact that Carl was able to accept her help, and establish their friendship.

May God give Comfort and Strength to those who Mourn.

THE LEGEND OF
THE DOGWOOD TREE

AT THE TIME of the crucifixion, the dogwood was the size of the oak and other forest trees. So firm and strong was the tree that it was selected as the timber for the cross.

To be used for such a purpose caused the tree great distress and grief. Jesus observed this and in His gently pity for all sorrow and suffering, made the tree this promise,

“Never again shall the dogwood grow large enough to be used as a cross. Henceforth it shall be slender, bent and twisted. Its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross with the print of the nails in each petal. In the center of the flower will be the crown of thorns, and all who see it will remember that it was upon a dogwood tree I was crucified. Therefore this tree shall not be destroyed, but cherished as a reminder of my death upon the cross.”

There will be a great encampment

In the land of clouds today.

A mingling and a merging

Of our boys who've gone away.

Though on earth they are disbanding,

They are very close and near,

For these brave and honored heroes

Show no sorrow, shed no tear.

They have lived a life of glory,

History pins their medals high,

Listen to the thunder rolling,

They are marching in the sky!

In Memory Of

Peggy Templeton

January 15, 1948 - February 15, 2013

Peggy Rae Templeton, daughter of Kenneth "Ray" and Edna Mae (Weeks) Keefe, was born on January 15, 1948 in Des Moines, Iowa. Peggy entered into eternal rest on February 15, 2013 at her home in Corning, Iowa at the age of sixty-five years and one month.

Peggy attended Corning High School and graduated with the Class of 1966. She continued her education at Creston Community College.

On January 25, 1969 Peggy was united in marriage to Mick Templeton at the Corning Christian Church.

Peggy worked for the NFO in Corning until her son Troy was born in June of 1969. Peggy then became a homemaker until February 1, 1976 when Peggy and Mick established Templeton Appliance in Corning. Together the couple worked side by side every day as partners. The couple welcomed the birth of their second child, Tara in February of 1978.

Peggy's passion was buying and selling antiques. She was very involved with Antiques on Main and had a booth there for several years. She was an avid reader and spent many hours on her deck bird watching. She especially loved the hummingbirds, blue birds and martins. Peggy was an excellent cook and well known for her German chocolate cake.

Peggy owned six Arabian horses and was a member of the International Arabian Horse Association; Corning Christian Church, where she was baptized; the Red Hat Society and the Adams County Historical Society.

Left to cherish Peggy's memory is her husband, Mick Templeton of Corning, IA; son, Troy Templeton of Gladstone, MO; daughter, Tara Templeton-Viera of Gladstone, MO; mother and stepfather: Edna and Jerry Walker of Corning, IA; mother-in-law, Darleen Templeton of Corning, IA; brother, David (Linda) Keefe of Cedar Rapids, IA; sister, Patti (Clif) Morrison of Scott City, KS and several nieces, nephews, numerous cousins, other relatives and many friends.

Peggy was preceded in death by her father, Kenneth Raymond Keefe in 1971 and father-in-law, Donald Templeton in 1983.

Robert Clark Templeton

Robert Clark Templeton, 62, nationally known artist and former Corning resident, died Tuesday, July 16, at his home and studio in Woodbury, Conn., after suffering a heart attack.

He was reknowned for his portraits of President Lyndon Johnson and Jimmy Carter as well as others ranging from sports figures to civil rights leaders.

Mr. Templeton completed three portraits of President Carter. One is in the Hall of Presidents of the Smithsonian's National Portrait Gallery, another at the Carter Presidential Center in Atlanta and a third in the Georgia Senate chamber.

Among his works were portraits of civil rights leader Martin Luther King; Rosa Parks, who refused to go to the back of a bus in Alabama; Eldridge Cleaver, author of "Soul on Ice"; baseball stars Stan Musial and Red Schoendienst and their families; movie stars Clark Gable, Joe E. Brown, Ray Bolger; and bowling champion Don Carter.

He was born in Red Oak on May 11, 1929, and graduated from high school in Malvern. At 16 he won a national high school merit scholarship at the Kansas City Art Institute. He was awarded the Vanderslice Scholarship for the next two years and had his first one-man show at the Kansas City Art Institute at 19. In subsequent years he conducted one-man presentations throughout the country.

He won a Ball Grant scholarship to the Art Students League in New York where he studied two years until drafted in the Army. He was assigned to Special Services and did mural and portraits of Army brass during the first year. For the second year he was sent to Heidelberg, Germany, as a press photographer for Stars and Stripes. Here he met his future wife Lenore, a native of Heidelberg.

In 1963 the family moved from New York to Corning where for two years he maintained a studio over the present-day Corning Vision Center. While in Corning, he devoted his time to landscape painting and portrait work of

APRIL 9, 2004

Dale E. Thomas, 58, of Creston, died of cancer April 3, 2004, at his home. Services were 11 a.m. April 7 at Holy Spirit Catholic Church in Creston with the Rev. Leonard Kenkel officiating. Burial was in Calvary Cemetery at Creston. Memorials may be directed to Holy Spirit Church, Green Valley Hospice, Greater Community Hospital Foundation or to the family. Powers Funeral Home in Creston was in charge of arrangements.

Mr. Thomas was born July 4, 1945, in Corning to Mildred F. (Reason) and Frank G. Thomas. He attended Corning schools. On June 25, 1965, he married Anita Marie Hayes in Creston. They lived briefly in Corning and Creston. Mr. Thomas worked with the National Guard from 1965 to 1973, and the couple lived in Connecticut, Virginia and California. He served in the U. S. Navy from 1973 to 1986, then returned to Creston, where he worked for Bunn-O-Matic until retirement in October 2003 due to illness. Mr. Thomas was a member of Holy Spirit Catholic Church.

Survivors include wife Anita Thomas of Creston; daughter Angie Thomas of Creston; son Tony (wife Tammy) Thomas of Creston; brother Cliff (wife Delores) Thomas; sisters June Blizzard and Dixie Stieber, both of Shenandoah, and Betty (husband Dale) Bowman of Corning; mother-in-law Helen Hayes of Creston; brothers-in-law Mike Roberti of Omaha, Neb.; Ray Marcus of Burlington; Ed Fort of Red Oak; David Hayes of San Diego, Calif.; Bill (wife Janet) Hayes, Mark Hayes (friend Carol Krings), James (wife Virginia Aguilar) Hayes, all of Creston; sisters-in-law Jackie (husband Bill) Gephart of San Diego, Calif.; Betty (husband Richard) Baker of Creston; and Mary Lynn (husband Arlin) Beemer of Mason City; and four grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents; father-in-law Glenn Hayes; sisters Bonnie Marcus, Jeannie Roberti, Marge Fort and Dorothy in infancy; brother Sam Thomas and brother-in-law Gene Stieber.

DANIEL F. THOMAS

Daniel Francis Thomas, the son of Edward A. and Helen Holmes Thomas, was born July 19, 1939 at the family home in Taylor County, Iowa near Corning; and passed away May 16, 1983 at Rosary Hospital in Corning from a sudden heart attack at the age of 43 years, 9 months and 27 days.

He grew up in the Fairview Community and graduated from the Corning High School in 1957. On September 23, 1962 he was united in marriage with Cathryn Ilene Pepper at the Lenox Methodist Church. They have resided in the Corning area all their married life, moving to the farm which had been the home of his grandparents and parents. Two children were born to bless this union: Brenda Jean and Brian Daniel.

Survivors include his wife Cathy; his daughter Brenda; his son Brian; his mother Helen Thomas; his sister: Jane Seaton and her husband Dan; his sister-in-law: Jean Croy and her husband Mike; his mother-in-law: Crissie Riegel and her husband John; his niece Tricia Seaton and his three nephews: Scott Seaton, Jeff and John Croy. He is also survived by other friends and relatives.

He was preceded in death by his father, two infant sisters, and his father-in-law: Howard Pepper.

Dan was an active member of the First United Methodist Church in Corning and a member of the National Guard from 1959 to 1964. He enjoyed farming, carpentry and the many activities of his children. He was a friend to all and always ready to lend a helping hand. To his niece and nephews he was a dedicated Uncle Dan.

EVELYN J. THOMAS

Evelyn Joann (Bailiff) Thomas was born July 10, 1932 in Carbon, Iowa to Paul Olin & Viola Marie (Gebbie) Bailiff. She entered into Eternal Rest on June 12, 2000 in Iowa City, Iowa at the age of 67 years, 11 months and two days. Evelyn attended grade school in Carbon and graduated from Corning High School with the class of 1950.

Evelyn married Raymond Dean Thomas on December 23, 1948 in Troy, Kansas. To this union, two children were born: Cynthia Rae Thomas and Timothy Paul Thomas.

In addition to her job as a loving wife and mother, Evelyn was a Certified Nurses Aide. She worked as a Home Health Aide for the Public Health program in Adams County for five years. She continued for 17 more years after the program was transferred to Alegent Health Services at Mercy Hospital. Evelyn served as supervisor for the program for 10 years until her retirement in 1994.

Helping other people was Evelyn's greatest joy and her energy in caring for others was boundless. The focus of her life was her family, her church, her many friends and her community. Evelyn had great faith as a christian and her church activities were numerous and life-long. She taught Sunday School, served as CWF officer, was a deacon and elder, a worship leader and an active volunteer for many church and community activities. Evelyn enjoyed square dancing, playing cards, visiting with friends and relatives, camping, traveling, reading and writing poetry.

Evelyn was preceded in death by her parents and two infant brothers.

Evelyn is survived by her loving husband, Ray Thomas, her daughter, Cindy (special friend, Cynde) of Green Bay, Wisconsin; her son, Tim (wife Lisa) of Sioux City, Iowa; her two sisters: Beverly (husband Richard) Bohanan of St. Joseph, Missouri and Dorothy (husband Ben) Johnson of Lone Tree, Iowa; her brother, Richard (wife Darlene) Bailiff of Corning, Iowa; two brothers-in-law: Eldon and Gary Thomas of Phoenix, Arizona; Evelyn is also survived by her six grandchildren: Kerry Dyer and Aaron Tiesling-Rusch of Green Bay, Wisconsin, Tara, Tammy and Dale Wayne Roberts and Tyler Thomas of Sioux City, Iowa; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many friends.

*Enough happiness to keep you sweet,
Enough trials to keep you strong.*

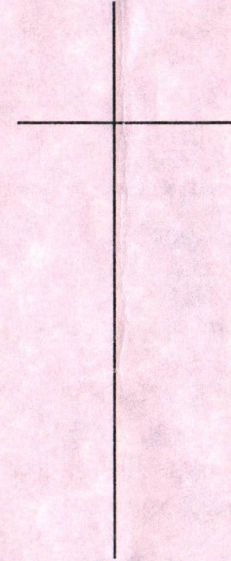

*Enough sorrow to keep you human,
Enough hope to keep you happy.*

*Enough failure to keep you humble,
Enough success to keep you eager.*

*Enough friends to give you comfort,
Enough wealth to meet your needs.*

*Enough enthusiasm to look forward,
Enough faith to banish depression.*

*Enough determination to make each

ROLAND-JOHNSON-RITCHIE FUNERAL HOME

Corning, Iowa

Helen Frances Holmes Thomas began her life journey on March 11, 1911, in Prescott, Iowa as the eldest of three daughters born to Francis (Frank) Holmes and Nancy Freeman Holmes. She entered into her eternal rest on November 5, 2003, at Karen Acres in Des Moines, Iowa at the age of 92 years, 7 months and 25 days.

Throughout their lives, the three sisters, Helen, Ruth and baby Esther were inseparable. After moving from a farm in the Prescott area in 1916, 'the girls' as they called themselves, grew up in their home on the hill, now the site of the Alegent Health Mercy Hospital. Following graduation from Corning High School in 1930, Helen received her teaching certificate from Iowa State Teacher's College in 1932, and taught in a rural Adams County School.

On June 21, 1934, she was united in marriage to Edward Atwood Thomas in Nebraska City, Nebraska. Together they shared forty wonderful years of marriage before his death in 1974. Helen and Edward loved children and young people. Their greatest joys in life were the births of their son, Daniel Francis and daughter, Jane Marie.

Both Helen and Edward spent many hours serving the Fairview Church in Rural Taylor County. Helen and friend, Neva Vogel, served as Iowa Youth Fellowship Leaders for many years and organized countless skating parties, hay rides and square dances. Helen continued to nurture young people throughout her life. Grandma Helen cared for children in her home for many years. She loved to sing nursery rhymes, bake cookies and rock her babies to sleep. Helen loved to play cards and games and always considered her fondness for bingo a small vice.

Helen had a deep faith and believed that to be a true Christian, you must live your faith each day. She was always there to lend support and care to anyone young or old. The Thomas house was always filled with love, laughter and the scent of freshly baked cookies.

Left to cherish Helen's memory is her daughter Jane Seaton and husband Dan of West Des Moines; two nieces, Barbara Adams and Jeannie Hager and husband Ron; daughter-in-law, Cathryn Hardee and husband Bob; four grandchildren, Brenda Thomas Roser and husband Bill; Brian Thomas and wife Allison; Tricia Peters and husband Tony; and Scott Seaton; six great-grandchildren, Justine, Jessica and Tori Roser; Tyler Peters; and Payton and Hailey Thomas.

Preceding Helen in death are her parents, her beloved husband Edward in 1974; her son, Daniel Francis in 1983; two infant daughters, Regena and Carolyn; two sisters, Ruth Liddell and Esther Peterson; two brothers-in-law, Orville Liddell and Louis Peterson; and a nephew, Larry Liddell.

May God grant comfort and strength to those who mourn Helen's passing.

GRANDMA IS JUST AWAY

The Lord works in mysterious ways.
He gives us Life and takes it away.
He gives us tears for happiness and sorrow.
But only for Grandma gave a brighter tomorrow.
Through her sickness and suffering, she kept on praying.
The "Gift of God is Eternal Life" is what Grandma kept saying.
She asked for forgiveness and asked to be blessed.
For she knew soon she'd be at rest.
She's the type of person who always cared.
Her love and kindness she always shared.
In our hearts, she'll be with us everyday.
Cause Grandma isn't gone, she's just away.

a grandson, Kenneth LaVerne; three sons-in-law: Jess R. Burke, Cleo Roberts, and Harold Romer; three brothers: William, Guy and Harrison DeVore; and by two sisters: Catherine Reichardt and Mellie Parkinson.

She was baptized in the faith of the Brethren Church and was a charter member of the Riverside Garden Club, from which she will be greatly missed. She was happiest when her busy hands were doing for others and she wore her age gracefully. Her cheery smile and greetings always brought sunshine into the lives of those she came into contact with. May God give Comfort & Strength to those who Mourn.

ETHEL B. THOMPSON

Ethel Belle DeVore, the daughter of Matilda & Watt DeVore, was born on December 13, 1887 in Cass County, Iowa; and passed away at the Greater Community Hospital in Creston, Iowa on June 5, 1982 at the age of 94 years, 5 months & 23 days.

She was united in marriage with Chester Thompson at her parents home on December 25, 1907.

She is survived by her four daughters: Ada Noecker & her husband Harry of Osburn, Idaho; Kylene McClain & her husband Emmett of Taft, California; Neta (Mrs. Harold) Romer of Bridgewater, Iowa; and Feba Mitchell & her husband Joe of Taft, California. Also surviving are a sister-in-law, Bessie DeVore, 10 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren, and 4 great-great-grandchildren.

In Memory Of
Gary Thompson

June 22, 1938 - August 31, 2014

Gary Gene Thompson, the only child of Harry D. and Edna L. (Spring) Thompson, was born in Corning, Iowa on June 22, 1938. Gary passed away on Sunday, August 31, 2014 at Alegent Creighton Health in Corning. Gary was educated in the Corning Public Schools and started working with his parents, in the family business, when he was 16 years old. Gary graduated from Corning High School with the Class of 1956. On June 5, 1960, Gary married Judy Wallace at the Presbyterian Church in Corning and a son, Brent, was later born to bless this union.

In 1972, Gary purchased the family business, Thompson Electric Company, located on Corning's Main Street, Davis Ave. In 1987, Gary began working in Financial Services for New York Life and opened his office next to Thompson Electric. Gary was involved in businesses located on Corning's Main Street for over 60 years. Gary devoted countless hours serving on various Boards, including: the A.C.E.D.C., recruiting Industries to Corning and was instrumental in creating Corning's Blue Grass Industrial Park. Gary served on the Board for the Chamber of Commerce and helped start the Chamber Coffee's, which are still held on Friday mornings. He also served on the Board for Corning Main Street and was proud that Corning was one of the first Main Street Communities in the state. Gary was also instrumental in starting the Southwest Iowa Coalition, bringing neighboring communities together to work for a common goal. In his final project, Gary raised the money for the new Sports Court, an outdoor basketball facility in Corning. Gary was a long-time member of the Corning Rotary Club, the Happy Hollow Country Club and the Corning Presbyterian Church. Gary also served on the Corning Volunteer Fire Department and the Iowa National Guard for many years.

Preceding Gary in death were his parents and his mother and father-in-law.

Left to cherish his memory is his wife, Judy Thompson of Corning; his son, Brent (wife Sally) Thompson of Corning; two grandsons: Devin and Blake Thompson; several cousins and many, many friends.

MARIE TINDALL

E. Marie Tindall, the daughter of Ralph O. and Eslie Edna (Snyder) Barginholt, was born August 2, 1910, on a farm northwest of Carl, Iowa. She entered into Eternal Rest on August 31, 2000 at the Clearview Home in Clearfield, Iowa, at the age of 90 years, and 29 days.

Marie moved to Corning, Iowa at the age of four. She attended school in the Rawson building and graduated from the old Corning High School in 1927. Upon graduation she taught school for five years; two years in Carl Township, one year at the French Colony, and two years in Carbon.

Marie was united in marriage with Vaughn Russell Tindall on December 31, 1937. They met while Marie was teaching at Carbon. Making their home in Corning, their first daughter Cheri Kay was born October 18, 1931. Michelle Marie joined the family sixteen years later on July 27, 1953.

Rev. E. S. Menoher of the Corning United Methodist Church baptized Marie when she was ten years old and she enjoyed lifelong activities of the church. She attended church school, church and Eporth league.

Marie later had the pleasure of teaching church school and was the church school superintendent for over twenty years. W.S.C.S (now U.M.W.) was a challenge and Marie received her lifetime membership in 1967. She found it very humbling to be mentioned in Methodist Who's Who. Marie enjoyed substitute teaching and cooked in the lunch room for the Corning school system for ten years. Her children and the school children, she loved.

Many people influenced Marie's life. Great-grandmother Fannie Krause Britten gave her the Christian background. Her mother Eslie, the good things of life; love, faith, hope, courage, and understanding. Vaughn gave her love and friendship for almost sixty years.

Some have quarreled over who will sit at the right hand of God. Marie had no such thought as she had him at her right side through the Holy Spirit of His Son Jesus Christ all through her life. She felt, who could be more blest.

Preceding Marie in death were her parents; husband Vaughn in 1992, and great-granddaughter Cara Griffith.

Marie is survived by her daughters: Cheri (Charles) Griffith, of Exton, Pennsylvania; Michelle (Doug) Leonard, of Corning, Iowa; her grandchildren Kimberly, Kevin, Marcella, Anna Marie, Sarah Beth, and Aaron Daniel; and six great-grandchildren; other relatives and a host of friends.

VAUGHN R. TINDALL

Vaughn Russell Tindall, son of Charles and Emma Cordelia (Carr) Tindall, was born July 11, 1910 at Carbon, Iowa and entered into rest December 21, 1992 at Mercy Hospital, Corning, Iowa, at the age of 82 years, 5 months and 10 days.

He was reared in Carbon and received his education in the Carbon and Corning schools.

On December 31, 1932 Vaughn was united in marriage with E. Marie Bargenholt at Nebraska City, Nebraska. Two daughters were born to bless this union. Vaughn and Marie were privileged to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary in 1982, their 59th in 1991 and would have marked their 60th anniversary on December 31 of this year.

The couple lived a short time in Carbon where Marie taught school and Vaughn was in the trucking business with his brother James. After moving to Corning, he continued in the trucking business for 18 years. He also farmed 11 of these 18 years. Vaughn and Roy Campbell were in partnership in the Campbell-Tindall Chrysler Dealership for 25 years. His later years were spent working in the Corning Community School system and for the City of Corning at the Community Building.

Vaughn was a member of the Corning United Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Clifford and James; and a great-granddaughter, Cara Griffith.

Vaughn is survived by his wife Marie of Corning, Iowa; two daughters, Cheri (Mrs. Charles) Griffith of Exton, Pennsylvania and Michelle (Mrs. Doug) Leonard of Corning; two sisters, Lorene Briles and Wanda Tindall of Corning; a sister-in-law, Mrs. James Tindall Sr. of Corwith, Iowa; 6 grandchildren, Kimberly Rissell, Kevin Griffith, Marcella Griffith, Anna Leonard, Sarah Leonard and Aaron Leonard; 3 great-grandchildren, Melynda Rissell, Wesley Griffith and Tristan Griffith, many nieces and nephews, other relatives and a host of friends.

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life:
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

HOWARD J. TOWNSEND

OCTOBER 30, 1917 – AUGUST 16, 2006

Howard James Townsend, son of Andrew Jackson Townsend and Carrie (Schow) Townsend of St. Paul, Nebraska was born October 30, 1917. Howard entered eternal rest on Wednesday, August 16, 2006 at Corning Nursing and Rehab Center at the age of eighty-eight years, nine months and seventeen days. He worked on his parents' farm until 21 years of age. He then worked for the county road maintenance for three years. Howard enrolled in a Chicago electrical school in 1941.

January 1942 he joined the air force, spending time in England, North Africa and Italy. April 1945 he returned to the United States on a 45 day leave and was discharged in June 1945.

Howard married a long time friend Faye Marrs on May 22, 1945 at Tingely, Iowa. They farmed near Mt. Ayr until February of 1956 when they bought a farm east of Corning, Iowa. January 3, 1984 a farm auction was held and Howard and Faye retired and moved to Corning.

He was a life time member of church and attended regularly. He was a member of the Corning American Legion.

Left to mourn Howard's passing are his wife, Faye; son, Rex and wife Judy; daughter, Carmen Young and husband Larry; 6 grandchildren, 1 great-granddaughter. Brothers Darold and wife Ellamae, Warren and wife Margie all of St. Paul, Nebraska; , also sisters-in-law, Betty Fenn, Carson, Iowa and Naomi Marrs of Lincoln, Nebraska and a number of nieces, nephews and many friends.

Preceding Howard in death were his parents; sister, Evelyn and brother, Marvin.

*There is never a life without sadness,
There is never a heart free from pain;
If one seeks in this world for true solace,
He seeks it forever in vain.*

*So when to your heart comes the sorrow
Of losing some dear one you've known
'Tis the touch of God's sickle at harvest
Since He reaps in the fields
He has sown.*

The Best

*God saw you getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So he put his arms around you,
And whispered, "Come with Me."
With tearful eyes we watched you,
And saw you pass away,
Although we loved you dearly
We could not make you stay.
A golden heart stopped beating
Hard-working hands at rest,
God broke our hearts
To prove to us
He only takes the best.*

Ecclesiastes 3:2

To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted.

Bruce Vance Travis, son of Sylvia (LaRay) Travis and Thomas Travis, was born in Holdrege, Nebraska on May 10, 1929. He was educated in Holdrege, Neb. and Corning, Iowa. On Nov. 11, 1951, Bruce married Betty Hardisty at the First Baptist Church in Corning. They first lived and farmed near Sharpsburg, then to Creston, Mas-sen and Williamson, before settling northeast of Creston in 1966. Their farming included raising cattle and hogs, and working with horses throughout their life. Bruce was a member of the First Baptist Church in Creston, where he served as a trustee for over 20 years. They were formerly involved with 4-H, the Creston Cozy Campers and the Union Co. Saddle Club.

Survivors include his wife, Betty Travis of Creston; daughter, Rose (husband Jerry) McAlexander of Beaconsfield; two sons, Bruce, Jr. (wife Dee) Travis and David (wife Jean) Travis, all of Creston; one brother, Marion Travis of Chillicothe, Mo.; 11 grandchildren, Jeff (fiancée Tara), Tim (wife Sarah), Pat (wife Melissa) and Andy (wife Beckey) McAlexander, Jamie (wife Megan), Clint (wife Rachael) and Adam (wife Kelsey) Travis, Mallory (husband Kevin) Lents, Mandy (husband Drew) Henderson, Curtis (wife Chelsea) and Roxanne Travis; 21 great-grandchildren; and many nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Bruce was preceded in death by his parents and seven brothers, Paul, Thomas, John, Lloyd, Mark, Ross and Paige Travis.

I'M FREE

DON'T GRIEVE FOR ME, FOR NOW I'M FREE
I'M FOLLOWING THE PATH GOD HAS LAID
YOU SEE,
I TOOK HIS HAND WHEN I HEARD HIM CALL
I TURNED MY BACK AND LEFT IT ALL.

I COULD NOT STAY ANOTHER DAY
TO LAUGH, TO LOVE, TO WORK OR PLAY.
TASKS LEFT UNDONE MUST STAY THAT WAY.
I FOUND THAT PEACE AT THE CLOSE OF DAY.

IF MY PARTING HAS LEFT A VOID
THEN FILL IT WITH REMEMBERED JOYS,
A FRIENDSHIP SHARED, A LAUGH, A KISS,
OH YES, THESE THINGS I TOO WILL MISS...

BE NOT BURDENED WITH TIMES OF SORROW
I WISH YOU THE SUNSHINE OF TOMORROW,
MY LIFE'S BEEN FULL, I SAVORED MUCH,
GOOD FRIENDS, GOOD TIMES, A LOVED ONE'S TOUCH.

PERHAPS MY TIME SEEMED ALL TOO BRIEF
DON'T LENGTHEN IT NOW WITH UNDUE GRIEF,
LIFT UP YOUR HEARTS AND PEACE TO THEE
GOD WANTED ME NOW; HE SET ME FREE...

THE HUMANIST

"I'm not a praying man," he says,
And quite believes it, too,
But you can always count on him
When there is work to do;
He's right there with a helping hand
Whenever there is need,
When there are children to be clothed
Or hungry mouths to feed.
He's not a praying man, he says,
And yet I've seen him share
With others, giving cheerfully,
When he had none to spare;
I've heard him speak a kindly word
When slander flew about,
And lend his quiet courage
To the Fellow down and out.
I've seen him watch a sunset,
And listen to a song;
I've heard his friendly whistle
When a stray dog came along-
Because of him, the world's
A little better place today-
And yet he quite believes it
When he says he doesn't pray !

In Memory Of

Jo Ann G. Turner

October 9, 1930 - April 19, 2014

Jo Ann Gustafson Turner of Corning, Iowa, departed this life on April 19, 2014, at Alegent Creighton Health Mercy Hospital in Corning. Jo Ann was born in Des Moines, Iowa, on October 9, 1930, to Roy H. Gustafson and Billie F. Gustafson. She graduated from Theodore Roosevelt High School in Des Moines in 1948. She attended Colorado Women's College in Denver for her freshman year and graduated from the University of Iowa in 1952.

She met Austin B. Turner III, of Corning, Iowa, while they were students at the University of Iowa. They were married on August 11, 1951, at Plymouth Congregational Church in Des Moines, and they remained deeply in love and devoted to each other until Austin's death in 2002.

Following their graduation from college and Austin's military service in Korea, they returned to Corning where Austin assumed management of the family business, A.B. Turner & Son. They made their life together, raising a family, developing lifelong friendships, serving their community, and promoting numerous community and regional projects.

Jo Ann was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority at the University of Iowa where she developed many enduring friendships. She was involved in numerous community and regional organizations, including among others, president of the Board of Trustees of the Corning Public Library, leading its major building expansion; board member of the Southwest Iowa Regional Library; board member of the Mercy Health Care Foundation; Corning Woman's Club; P.E.O. Chapter CV; and was actively involved in the successful bond issue for the Corning Elementary School Building. She also had great faith and was a lifelong, devoted member of the First Presbyterian Church of Corning, serving as an elder as well as an active participant in Presbyterian Women.

Most important to Jo Ann, however, was her beloved husband and their children to whom she dedicated her life. Jo Ann and Austin had four children: Austin Beecher Turner IV (Dianna) of Des Moines, Eric F. Turner (Lisa) of Des Moines, Alec H. Turner (Nancy) of Corning, and Betsy F. Akin (Scott) of Corning, and nine grandchildren, Daniel, William (Alaina), Drew, Connor, Ross, Ella, Sarah, Austin, and Ned.

Jo Ann was preceded in death by her parents and her husband, Austin. She is survived by her sister, Jean Crandall of Mt. Pleasant, Michigan; and her children and grandchildren, all of whom are forever grateful for her unending love and devotion.
