The Lord is my shepherd;

I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for Thou art with me;

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me
in the presence of mine enemies:
Thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

When I Am Gone

*When I am gone, release me, let me go
I have so many things to see and do,
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.
I gave you my love, you can only guess
How much you gave me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown,
But now it's time I travel alone.
So grieve awhile for me, if grieve you must,
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while we must part,
So bless the memories that lie within your heart.
I won't be far away, for life goes on,
So if you need me, call on the One to whom I've gone,
And I will come in memory.
Though you can't see me or touch me, I'll be near.
And if you listen with your heart you will hear,
All of my love around you, soft and clear.
And then, When you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and say...
"Welcome Home"*

THE ETERNAL GOODNESS

*I know not what the future hath
Of marvel or surprise;
Assured alone that life and death
His mercy underlies.*

*And if my heart and flesh are weak
To bear an untried pain,
The bruised reed He will not break,
But strengthen and sustain.*

*And so, beside the silent sea,
I wait the muffled oar,
No harm from Him can come to me
On ocean or on shore.*

*I know not where His islands lift
Their froned palms in air,
I only know I cannot drift
Beyond His love and care*
